This guy did multi trades and scammed multiple non-upgraded at the same time thinking that he'll get away because we cant -rep him.

I was selling 83m rsgp to him for 37$ via LR i added him on skype chatted with him for a bit then did the trade. I gave him 83m as agreed, he then kept saying that he sent the money to my LR, but i didn't receive a cent. He said that it takes a while for the money to show up in my account, but after a while i asked him again and he kept ignoring me, and after that he blocked me.

I saw him doing another trade on rs to a guy, found out later that he was a user on hf named "Caly". Both of us got scammed at the same time by him doing multi-trades.

Here is Caly's scam report <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2772863>

His profile ID: Secure. uid=865672

PMs: Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Skype Logs: Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Proof from Caly's scam report that its his Skype account

Here's also my LR balance Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I hope he gets banned, I know this is also my mistake partially because i didnt check for any scam reports and found out later that he already had scam reports on his ass, but i saw his thread and he looked pretty legit to me. :/

I dont really care for that gp since i already had it for free, but a scam report should be made to warn other members from falling for it.

I thought Ub3rs had to be manually reviewed by omni, and they had to be HQ and trusted but i guess i was wrong. ?

This is the first time i write a scam report, if there is anything missing tell me to add it.
Gonna also submit this to hfs wag

I've dealt with him before.
I know that not long ago his account was compromised.
If he really is scamming people it's a shame.

If he really is scamming people it's a shame. Ya, i've seen some of his old scam reports after it was too late. :/
if he does use this excuse again, i wont mind getting my rsgp back and closing this whole thing lol.
:P
But as for now hes considered a scammer until he proves otherwise, and i dont recommend anyone dealing with him until he responds to this thread.

No, I meant that I had a successful trade with him. I bought a BF3 LE key from him a while back.

So i assume only upgraded members can get other upgraded members banned....

User understood my situation, I offered to pay him back but all he wanted was an apology - quite a friendly user. Thank you and sorry for the incident that happened.

Issue has been resolved, and everything is good now.
Scam report closed.
