Thread: Why are really bad members not permanently banned anymore?

R.A.T. - August 14, 2012, 7:09 pm

This guy: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1421966> impersonated a staff member and tried to scam me and another member earlier today.. Also by his username, he is probably a multiaccounter.... Why is he not permanently banned??? I contacted staff but he only got a one month ban? This guy and a few others are doing some SERIOUSLY bad things, and they are only getting a one month ban? Why is this?

Just let staff do their own work. It's their concern not ours.

It's up to the staff member though. But anyway I thought exiled was perma banned? Am I wrong?

This. If Staff feel a one month ban is enough, than its enough. Let them do their job.
