I am aware that most autopilot methods need a lot of work and aren't really as easy as they claim, but this method is different than the others. It takes 5 minutes to set up and the rest is just sitting back watching money come in.

I don't see how no investment is needed? Unless you earn literally $30 in the first month and use that to follow up the next month?

Also with the saturation, with this method I'm able to see how many people are also using this method and I've used this method before and it's saturated enough that $50 a day is out of question.

It's not out of the question if you seriously want $50. I'm editing the ebook every day to fix it up and add more detail. By the time 10 people buy and the price changes, this method will be able to get you close to $75 a day as I am testing new methods now with the one I am currently selling.

Finally!!!! A method that actually works.

I am on the 3rd day on this method and so far I've made $100, the initial cost and time was low and easy!

I am HIGHLY recommending this method and if you have the money buy it before anything else, no kidding.

The only thing that I can compare this method with is sex!

Good luck on sales, planning to do future business.

A lot of the vouches are old. If you would be willing to give me a vouch copy, I could write you something HQ.

But from a buyer's point, I don't see myself purchasing this as you don't tell us anything about the method, and the vouches aren't the most updated.

I feel like people are just vouching a friend, not the method.

Does this involve PPD, CPA, or anything of sort? Does this involve Instagram, or making YouTube videos? Do we have to sell anything?
