Thread: Since when is it allowed to lie in a rep?

Granny Smith - August 20, 2012, 2:58 am

People keep lying in reps and no one gives a fuck. I mean you can tell someone in rep that he infected you and no one gives a fuck even if its not true. So people stop dealing with this person just because of a lie.

[IMG]<http://hfimage.net/images/kugyplo1kacugegf63.png>[/IMG]

So this rep was legit with 0 proof. Just a lie. So basically I can go to any member that I don't like and start some lies about them? And what me makes thinking is that a lot of times I give a legit rep, it gets removed just because the rep whores go crying. The rep system is fucked up.

READ THIS BEFORE YOU TELL ME TO REPORT IT!Reported to JD and he told its legit.

STOP THE HATE AGAINST JD HE IS GOOD, I JUST WANT TO KNOW WHY THIS IS ALLOWED BECAUSE THIS IS BAD FOR ANY FUTURE DEAL A LEGIT GUY WANTS TO DO.

This is my feedback to the rep system, if you close this it shows me that you don't have arguments.

Hercules. - August 20, 2012, 2:59 am

I don't think this is allowed . Seems Unfair without any proof, report it to JD Goodluck.

Hate Sleeping Alone - August 20, 2012, 2:59 am

I went through your rep details and all of them say (-3) accusing me of scamming via rep. Nice try doe.

PedroDJ - August 20, 2012, 3:02 am

It's a neutral rep, you should don't care about it :)

zombiehacker - August 20, 2012, 3:03 am i scam report made by him valid.

I know this because jb repfucked me twice over this and warned be for months.

Positive - August 20, 2012, 3:08 am

Saying "deal with caution" is allowed. He never said you scammed him, which is against the rules, he just stated that you tried scamming him.

I want to see proof if someone tells that I tried to infect him and tried to scam him. I am sure he doesn't even know my skype. I have some trusted members in my skype, the could proof that it is my skype and he could try to know my skype but he will not as I never had contact with him on Skype.

#Root - August 20, 2012, 3:15 am

There just kiddies trying to piss you off man. Don't worry about it. Give him -3 for lying in rep then report rep.

The reputation system:

Code It is a method for privileged members to give their [u]opinion[/u] about other users for the rest of HF to see.

Saying "deal with caution" is not a method for privileged members to give their opinion about other users for the rest of HF to see.

????Chicago Bulls - August 20, 2012, 3:21 am yup this is not Allowed, i did that to a kid but he really did scam but i had no proof and i got warning level and he had it removed.

Slenderman™ - August 20, 2012, 3:43 am there should be atleast a gyazo link in it with a pic, my opinion.

Mr C - August 20, 2012, 3:45 am

If a scam -rep was made without the user creating a thread about said scam then it is in fact rep abuse. You can get it removed.

Rokakku - August 20, 2012, 3:50 am

It's not allowed. JD has made another mistake, he's done it to me to. I've got a few reps on myself saying that I backed out of RSGP trades, I'm shady and to deal with caution. Then JD says it's not an infringement.

Even the mentor here is wrong. Desiderius just nailed it. This.

That is not relevant to the case.

Stop posting low-quality nonsense.

I got a warning for putting "trying to scam" in a rep.

St. Jiberish - August 20, 2012, 4:11 am

You are not allowed to lie in a rep. Please report it to Judge Dredd.

Desiderius - August 20, 2012, 4:17 am

How on earth can our members believe that saying "deal with caution" in a reputation is allowed?

My opinions:

A feedback system for the marketplace is under development.

The reputation system allows reputations about scamming because we don't have a marketplace feedback system.

It is obvious that reputations about scamming have to be backed up with a scam report.

"Almost scammed me" is not an opinion.

"Deal with caution" is not an opinion.

"Infected me" is not an opinion.

crazylue - August 20, 2012, 4:29 am

I am sure this could be considered defamation.

Since he made a false statement that has potentially harmed your actual reputation and this could cause you to lose money.

Wires - August 20, 2012, 4:30 am

Not Rep abuse as it didn't actually say you scammed, -3 the boy

Laceup - August 20, 2012, 4:31 am

if they dont have proof are what ever report it man because its not fair

Desiderius - August 20, 2012, 4:33 am

This is about understand or not understanding the reputation system.

Is "deal with caution" an opinion?

Is "avoid this user" an opinion?

Is "almost infected me" an opinion?

Dan. - August 20, 2012, 4:35 am

This is actually not allowed. He called you a scammer without a link to a valid scam report that he posted.

Contact Judge Dredd and it will be removed and the giver will get a 20% warning.

Other than that, you can lie your ass off in reps.

He says he already did and JD said its valid . That seems strange.

The guy changed it after the report but I still don't have the same opinion with JD. He told to the screenshot its legit and this shows that members can lie, furthermore its not an opinion.

And a lot of time if I give out legit rep, it gets removed. And telling I am a scammer and trying to infect people is legit...?

He gave a reputation without an opinion in it.

There's nothing wrong with Hack Forum's rep system.
Prove that you didn't scam him.

How can I proof that I didn't have contact with him? I think the guy has to proof that I had contact with me on Skype. I have some trusted members in my Skype and this guy doesn't even know my Skype name, your comments will not help.

He was not accused of scamming a member, the reputation comment is not related to sales.

He did not give an opinion on a user.

Hexicidal - August 20, 2012, 4:49 am

This is a reputation violation. He must link the Deal Dispute thread in the reputation also. Please make a thread here: <https://hackforums.net/forumdisplay.php?fid=194> and it will be taken care of.

Isnt that what half of HF is made up? lol Anyways. Dont listen to them. As long as you know that you didnt do anything bad, Your fine and the truth will remain on your side.

pr3fix - August 20, 2012, 5:10 am

I believe that there is a rule that states that you cannot rep another about possible scam that that individual committed without previously creating a thread (with proof) about it.

Douchebag # 145 - August 20, 2012, 6:08 am
