Thread: AA Weekly Poll #18: Do you regularly watch the OP/ED with every episode you watch?

Angel Beats! - August 24, 2012, 11:24 pm

The AA Weekly polls went on a short break for the past couple weeks, but it's back now, and I plan to continue it as much as I can. I am currently looking for anybody else who'd be willing to make polls with me, PM me if you'd like to.

Last week's poll results:

We discovered that the majority of Asian music fans have gotten into Asian music because of anime.

This week's poll: Do you normally watch the OP/ED of every episode you watch?

Basically, this poll is about whether or not you skip the OP/ED for each episode of a series you watch. Once you've seen the OP/ED once do you skip them for each new episode, or rewatch them every time? Here are your choices:

I almost never skip the OP or the ED

I only skip the OP (Most of the time)

I only skip the ED (Most of the time)

I normally skip both the OP and ED after seeing them once

If I LOVE the OP/ED I normally won't skip it

Feel free to leave a comment saying what you picked and perhaps describing your first real experience. This is not a debate thread. Poll is public and single choice only. Poll will close in 5 days.

Know a good poll topic? PM me and your topic may (actually almost probably will, we're running out of ideas; SERIOUSLY, pm me) be the next AA poll!

I normally skip both the OP and ED after seeing them once
It gets irritating to listen to it like a dozen times

Programmargorp - August 24, 2012, 11:31 pm

I try to get through the series without using time on the OP, that way i can get through 3 eps per hour.

YERANUK - August 24, 2012, 11:35 pm

This is like the 20th time someone has asked this question on AA, why ask it again?

It's never been an AA Weekly poll, and I'm running out of ideas! If someone has something more original please PM me, need ideas for future polls.

Why is there no option for never watching either? That would be my choice.

~Para - August 25, 2012, 6:46 am

If I like the OP/ED (ie Angel Beats) I normally won't skip it :P

Zoro - August 25, 2012, 8:20 am

I usually never watch either, waste of time imo.

OneandonlySunny™ - August 25, 2012, 9:08 am

sometimes i can't skip some endings or openings even i want to

Dyme - August 25, 2012, 10:48 am

Most of the time I skip the ED because they usually aren't very good.

Once in a while you'll get a good ED (EX: Dango Daikazoku, Haruhi ED)

Fox - August 25, 2012, 5:25 pm

I normally skip both the OP and ED after seeing them once.

Although, if it's a really good OP/ED, I skip it less frequently per episode.

Arruke - August 25, 2012, 5:52 pm

Nope, I always watch the op/ed everytime.

Wojak - August 25, 2012, 8:44 pm

I never skip OP but I always skip ED. I want to watch another episode as soon as possible :P

Eminent - August 25, 2012, 8:58 pm

Usually I'll skip it, because they get a bit annoying. Even with ones I really enjoy, after hearing it enough times, I just skip it.

Premortal - August 25, 2012, 10:54 pm

Opening I can handle, but by the time it's over I'm too anxious to get to the next episode to watch the ending.

?Ruthless - August 25, 2012, 11:05 pm

I normally don't skip the opening, just because I always skip to the wrong spot if I do and think I miss something important. Nothing really happens after the ending so no point in watching it.

Elweth - August 26, 2012, 12:37 am

Although I can vote, but here's my answer.

Spoiler (Click to View) If I LOVE the OP/ED I normally won't skip it

Ryuku - August 26, 2012, 12:25 pm

I'd like to point out that sometimes there are scenes after the ED or during it. Even if you skip it, it's best to double-check.

XDawNeDX - August 26, 2012, 12:29 pm

If I'm watching a running anime, I'll watch the OP/ED. If I'm watching a completed anime, I'll probably skip them after a while.

GL1TCH3D - August 26, 2012, 12:35 pm

Depends on how good the OP/ED is. Also, sometimes there's recaps in the OP (see Durarara) or conclusions to episodes in the ED (see Ano Hana).
