Thread: Friend makes hip-hop. Super good.

PURPPP - August 25, 2012, 10:32 pm

So this is the brother of my friend in this thread. He also makes music and we're friends too so I thought I'd make a thread on here for him as well. Check out his newest song.. The lyrics are super deep if you really listen.

If you liked it his soundcloud page is HERE. Also make sure to check out the other thread. ?

all feedback welcomed :).

Music videos will be coming sooner rather than later hopefully . A steady flow of videos for sure by next summer.

He's pretty good, how old is he? What program does he record and edit with? Surely not autocity?

Pro Tools but my other friend uses garage band. He's able to do work in garage band its kind of cool cause a lot of people hate on it but he makes shit pop usin it. He's mid 20's but age doesn't really matter. Other friend is like 21.
