Thread: Fileice acceptance - high chance of getting accepted.

Moneytize - August 27, 2012, 2:56 am i will get you accepted into file ice. i will mentor you to make a 3 figure income. only twist here is that you will sign up under my ref link.

post and pm me if intrested

Sheldon Lee Cooper - August 27, 2012, 3:00 am

The thing is I'm already signed up under someone's referral who never comes online and does not help me anymore. I would love to have a new teacher. Ready to spend around 1 hour daily and around 3 hours on weekends. I'm willing to give a part of my earnings, maybe 12% everytime.

Please reply back if you like my offer.

Peace

Gaylce is lame nowadays. Why?..

I made 2k from file ice.(been member for more than 6 months) BUT,suddenly my account is unable to login(ERROR: Login Failed)

I reseted multiple times for many days,i sended an email to their support.

No reply,it's been more than 5-8 days. Plus,i have 0 files against their ToS or rules

Yeah they used to but not anymore for me at least. No reply after almost 1+week.... I had inside 200$ and they don't bother to answer my e-mail. The ticket support was fine,not fast either but 24-48 hours waiting time and then get answer. For e-mail,you wait MONTHS,maybe you never get an answer. Don't know what to say. I'll sue them with my lawyer if they won't reply to my simple e-mail.

What error message did you received after tried logging in? Mine was Login Failed Yup, I agree with Hopsin.. File-Ice isnt good as it used to be.. Moreover it has become very overrated now.

Yes,true. They have lower conversion rate as well. Example: Dollar files has around 80% conversion rate unlike gayice 50-60%.

Moneytize - August 27, 2012, 4:22 am

In no fkin way df has 80% conv rate..conv rates mainly depends upon the uploader

If you search on hf,it has been proven.

Here's my review on a few..

Shareca$h - Who doesn't know this site? YouTube videos flooded with Shareca$h links.. Shareca$h hasn't been updated for years, has saturated mirrors, and has a terrible conversion rate. The second someone gets on Shareca$h or one of it's mirrors, they leave. I don't recommend this site - but they still pay. Don't upload 'bad' files or you get banned. Shareca$h is pretty much a last resort for an earner. People go with Shareca$h because you don't need to be approved or verified to join. There aren't many pro's about Shareca$h - so from personal preference, don't join Shareca$h. The surveys are mostly download and two page submits and pay about 15% of what Shareca$h really makes.

Filefl@re - This site is new in the PPD world, but has a slick design and nice support. The surveys don't have a great conversion rate from personal preference. The site has features that make it unique. Like having to share the file with 10 friends before accessing the download. Filefl@re is growing at a rapid rate and is not flooded on YouTube - so take a big bite out of that pie before anyone else does. The site has good paying surveys and a 71% conversion rate (same file on DollarFiles had a 83% conversion). This is not a bad network, and the owner is a fellow HackForums member. The site is also updated frequently and they send out email notifications - so why not give it a go?

DollarFiles - This site is one of my favorites. The site does not require approval (anymore) and has a nice download page. The site has high converting offers and is also new. The site - like Filefl@re also is not flooded on YouTube (yet) so take a big bite from this pie also. Also owned by a HackForums member - it has fast support and frequent updates. They also have a leaderboard and a friendly community. Give it a go - you won't be disappointed.

Filelc£ - Filelc£ has been here for a while and is a loved network. All of its information is exaggerated - you get nowhere near $1 per download. 61% conversion here (83% at DollarFiles) and an average of 0.53/download. The support is shit.. absolute shit. Took 4 days for a reply to my email.. Then 2-6 days for each reply after. Never even got my problem solved and I was banned. So, I hate them personally - but everyone is entitled to their own opinion. Let's not forget their approval system. This is not a very accurate system.. You can only apply on weekdays and it took 6 days for a reply on why I was denied. Approved on my seventh application. Make up random shit if you honestly want to be approved. Not a favorite.

Firecash - This network is sexy. Has 7 mirrors, all with a different design and high conversion rate. I had a 91% conversion (highest ever) and have gotten on their monthly leaderboard for the past 4 months. They pay via PP and AP (Payza). You can request LR payments via support tickets but it takes 5-7 days extra because they get it transferred. The support replies in a max of 2 days or they double your earnings for a week. I love this network and have an average of $2.13 a download. I've even gotten $17 downloads and a $6 one is not a rare occurrence. They have a spin the wheel game where you can win money, or xx% increase in your earnings for a week. (Usually 7% :p)

I think I should start using dollarfiles. What's the exact domain name? Website link?

I am already registered there but I've never used it. Link to website?

No problem mate,stay cool :)

I like them a lot.

Yup, Dollar/files is much better now. File-Ice is now overrated and now then dont care about their members they used to, also they're shaving off now, They just have become over confident.. File-Ice is now officially Gaylce.
