Hi people!

Today, I'll be giving out 3 prizes of $1 Via LR to the community.

This is in celebration of my Gamma status.

To get this, post below:

Why do you want this?

What have you done for the community?

What will you use it on?

Keep in mind, If I find more HQ People, I'll be giving out more!

There are no requirements for this, Since I will review each member personally.

Post away!

Why do you want this? Because i am running low on cash right now, every single dollar matters.

What have you done for the community? I always try to give back to the community.

What will you use it on? I'll just keep it in my LR Account along with some other bucks until i find something worth buying or when i am really in need of something.

Why do you want this? A penny saved is a penny earned (a dollar in this case!).

What have you done for the community? I have had a lot of successful deals, given away items and ebooks and always tried to remain fair and openminded.

What will you use it on? Probably something fun like a game on the App Store!

Thanks for this giveaway!
