Thread: [\[Updated\] Fast Made Thread Design \[/Updated\]](#)

Renpt0 - September 9, 2012, 3:14 am

Hey guys & girls :)

I just made a fast thread design for a friend and it took like 10 minutes to complete but I was speaking with my other friends at the same time so I did not have time to complete it :/
So here it is... and it's easy, fast made so don't worry that's nothing of my skills :D

Try to not use premade .PSD's. It makes the design look LQ and it stands out if one came from a more experienced designer.

What do you mean by premade .PSD?

Explain so I can understand what you mean :)

He means as in using a template :)

Nice layout nonetheless.

I don't like the difference between Buy now style and the rest of it. Keep it just 1 style.
But overall it looks nice,

+ Repeax?

Its nice but you need to work on the fonts, to me they seem like they are squashed.

I don't really know but it will get destroyed because if you do like this:

12m,3,5* would get bad :/
