Hopefully this thread won't be cross posted everywhere on HF.

Sad news though.

Lady Deathstroke - September 15, 2012, 3:18 pm

I also believe there is enough just a shame to see there will be no more groups. Wonder why he made this decision?

J. McCarthy - September 15, 2012, 3:18 pm

Sucks I can't make a hacking and coding group now :/
prob waste of money anyways :s

Kenn. - September 15, 2012, 3:18 pm

Well this isn't to bad, there are already enough groups imo.

St. Jiberish - September 15, 2012, 3:19 pm

Wow, I really wanted to create a group, but it's whatever I guess, I want to hear why, but I don't mind that much.

Ders - September 15, 2012, 3:19 pm

He has his good reasons for doing this. The existing groups will be worth a lot more now though.

Control Panel - September 15, 2012, 3:19 pm

Well the other leader cant sell their either lol so their are stuck with what they have

Rozyn - September 15, 2012, 3:20 pm

Damn I will have to buy a group from someone else. Also I already made a thread for this D:

Stev - September 15, 2012, 3:20 pm

Damn man, I know it's a hassle managing all the payments for the groups, but Omni could make some money with them :P

Pocky - September 15, 2012, 3:21 pm

It's honestly a good thing because, now people won't be spam buying groups up the asshole.
Keeping it clean. Know what I mean?

Omni doesn't make money from them besides the flat fee

and you can't sell them anymore
