Hey HF,

I was just wondering if the use of spiders is legal.

Define "spiders".

Google uses spiders to index its search results and I don't see how that is illegal.

For instance if I were to use webshag on its websites to see its contents.

No, I don't see how that would be illegal.

It would be up to you what you did with the information you got from using such tools though.

You're welcome.

Just be careful of what you decide to do with those tools.
