As the titled says, this site isn't working out for me and I've found something much better, so could get my account deleted please? ... Oh and have a nice day :D

It's not like anyone is going to try find you anyway...
And you can't get an account deleted.
Just stop logging on and it'll eventually get deleted.

Log out and never come back, simple as that.

Your account will not be closed by request.
