Thread: WARNING, Data Protector by n0\$f3ratu\$

spyware - September 24, 2012, 8:56 am

Hello HF, i just want share something that i saw today.

n0$f3ratu$ that makes the crypter called "data protector", is a little is full of QQ when something is wrong. He won't Somebody posted that the crypter was not FUD and if he could update it, and n0$f3ratu$ wanted proof within 4 hours that it wasn't FUD. Even tho' the OP said that he was in school and wasn't able to post the proof. n0$f3ratu$ banned his licence. (n0$f3ratu$ only gave him 4 hours.)

Another guy posted proof in his threat, and BAM, banned just like that. Not against the rule or anything... n0$f3ratu$ wanted his proof right? But he couldn't handle that his "legendary crypter" wasn't fud.

n0$f3ratu$ claims that his Data Protector is fully FUD, but yet, do a quick scan with "Malwarebytes Anti-Malware", and it will find his/the program/server you crypted, and fully remove it with no problems.

He deletes all proof on his threat, to cover over his falseness.

I'm just warning you guys, watch out if your buying anything from n0$f3ratu$, i think my self think that the stunt he made was really low and unrespectful over for his customers. Nothing ever said in his ToS, that all of this wasn't allowed, here is his tos:

Watch out.... this guy won't take no for an answer, he is basically almost scamming people by doing this stuff, making his own rules on the way as it fits him...

And he and his friends minus reps the hell out of me.

This thread is funny....
The crypter has over 100 HAPPY customers and if you read the guy posted MULTIPLE times so nos wanted proof this time...
The kid was in school? but was able to build a server and crypt it, scan it and then post on the thread?...

Yeah right.

Stop. backing him up?

You are backing up a guy who broke the rules MULTIPLE times and when asked for proof couldnt provide it.

Nos provided VIDEO proof that it was fud and bypassed the av the banned users where posting about.

Well maybe you should pull your head from your ass and read the posts made by the banned user and posts by nos stating if there are any problems pm him...

crypter has 100+ users they can follow the rules...

spyware - September 24, 2012, 9:18 am

And can he just randomly make up rules for his crypter that fits his needs in order to enjoy his life? Nothing stated in his ToS that you weren't allowed to post in the threat and say that it was not fud? Then he could simply make and update for the crypter? He is not saying that the crypter is a crap program.

he is just saying that it is not fair to just ban the user for posting that it is not FUD.

That should be a help to you. So you can go update it...

And also, if i was in school.. how the hell would a make a server, crypt it, scan it with elescan and then post the proove? THE CRYPTER IS ON MY HOME PC? dahell

It takes him time to re-fud. This is how it works

>People mass spread

>Suspicious slaves scan to virustotal/retarded crypter users scan to virustotal

>they send to AV's to check it out

>Crypter goes UD.

And i don't know what your bitching about, please read above, I posted a virus scan of a crypted server from last night.

So you have multiple accounts? This is not allowed.

9. Multiple accounts will not be allowed unless you are reporting your original account as hacked. Ban evading will result in the permanent closing of your old account and new accounts. No exceptions.

So why are u talking about FUD or UD ? spyware is just saying that it is not nice to just ban someone that has bought your product, and posted that is was not FUD. BUT THEN EDIT THE POST AND SAID IT WAS WHEN HE MADE A NEW SERVER AND CRYPTED IT.

No iKaros, you got it all wrong.

I never EVER forbidden my customers to post in the thread.

All i asked was if is something that can be fixed (a bug) then please PM me, otherwise if is a detection and you post about it without first asking me so i can VERIFY and you can't backup what you are stating then i think is normal to get all crazy.

This guys were bashing my sale thread all day long.

I asked them for proof so they can backup what they were stating.

I did it. I made two videos to prove them wrong.

The only thing i was talking about was the Posting on your thread about the detection rate.

But i myself was a Customer of this But i never had any problems with it since i never really complained about anything because at the time for me it was working great, but if OP wasn't i don't see why he couldn't just Pmed you or messaged you on MSN, but if he did really spam on your thread about the detection rate or something similar to that, then that's LQ and completely wrong also and if he was told once and did it again, then i myself would of banned them and anyone who didn't listen.

Well the simple fact that he sold no$ crypter lifetime licenses and eneded them in week to start data protector is pretty shitty. I dont buy anything on HF for this reason and never will. Spent a few bucks in the begging but it only got me limited and made me lose money. Oh well, its over and we cant do anything of it. He is shady in my opinion. Ill be waiting to get bashed by all his fans if not himself in a few minutes such as yourself OP ?

Yeah, it apparently works like this on HF:

1. No REP, no power.
2. People with high rep, can fucked you over as much as they wan't and do just what fits them.
3. Get fucked by higher REP members, for trying to "help", in the first place..

oMiNouSWaNDeReR - September 24, 2012, 3:50 pm

DataProtector and n0$ crypter have always been two of the best options on the market, especially for the price.

DataProtector is always quickly updated when it's detected and the support is great. Honestly the only people I see complaining about it are the people that either don't have a clue and shouldn't be dealing with RAT's and crypters in the first place or have immaturity issues and don't know the first step of conflict resolution.

For the people that were banned and are threatening to scan on virustotal to make it become detected more- really that probably shows why you were banned in the first place. After speaking with n0$ fairly in depth he seems like the type of person that if you were respectful in the first place he would have returned the respect and worked with you to find a solution. Defamation is one of the worst ways to try and get anything accomplished and punishing other members that are happily using the crypter does absolutely nothing to rectify your own situation- it'd be like spitting in peoples food at a restaurant simply because you personally had a bad experience.

Not that my 2 cents mean anything but I still wanted to back up n0$f3ratu$ since he's been the best provider of a crypter that I've found so far.

Absolutely agree with this members post, it perfectly summed up my feelings on this matter.

Also as a recent customer of n0$ DataProtector, I have had nothing but good support from him when needed. When I first purchased it there were plenty of questions I asked him, by PM, and he responded promptly and in a friendly manner, never rude or threatening.

After a week or two of using the crypter, I had an issue where it said it was being detected. I checked and rechecked and then PM'd him;

Quote:northman Wrote:

Just to let you know, the DP built-in scanner says 6/35 and one of my clients Norton AV has detected my server too.

n0$f3ratu$ Wrote:

Show me the scan link please.

For me is fud.

Maybe you used a detected icon or cloned with a detected assembly?

Crypt a file with no options scan it and let me know because what you are saying I think is impossible.

So I followed his instructions, crypted it with no added options (no icon change or assembly) and it turned out clean - it was due to my assembly or icon being detected, (maybe it was the same case with you and your friend?)...

Quote:Northmon Wrote:My apologies, it's as you suspected, either the icon or assembly info. New scan shows as 0/35.

Thank you, in future I will scan using this method before contacting you if any future possible detections arise.

And he replied with "no problem".

It was a simple case of the assembly info or icon being detected on my part, which I'm told can happen to any crypter, and was easily fixed using a different assembly info and icon.

As you can see this matter was easily resolved with no fuss, no threats and no childish behaviour, just one adult speaking to another, and I'm still a DataProtector customer.

I'd also like to add that the DataProtector sales thread, is a "Sales Thread" - meaning in my opinion what you post in that thread should be in regards to;

(1) The purchasing of the item advertised.

(2) Questions on the items functions/features before purchasing (if they have not been posted and answered, or shown on the OP or in the products guide/read me).

(3) Thank you posts and vouches.

It's not a support thread, otherwise it would be titled "DataProtector Support Thread". That's just my opinion on the interpretation of a sales thread, I could be wrong...

So if you had any payment issues, bugs, possible detections, then it should have been sent to him in a personal message through HF or his instant messenger as indicated. He's already said that in the thread and also in the crypter itself.

Just an immature bad buyer. That is basically what it is. Every seller hates to have one.

salesman is an unfair bitch, I don't mind getting my license banned it was only 50 euro anyway but the way he bans his users is ridiculous will never buy anything on HF again, it once again hows how immature even the big guys on this forum are high rep= power

no leet= no1 cares

Fucker.

This proves nothing, show proof that it is crypted with Data Protector :)

Fucker.

Exactly. just like your bum buddy couldn't....now show proof you are older than 10 and not a but-hurt kid..oh wait you cant.

best crypter on HF
also i got instant responds amazing service + crypter

thanks n0$f3ratu$, amazing product

So it's the best crypter on HF, and amazing service, and now it's "shit" because you broke the sellers rules. This has nothing to do with the product itself so don't cloud the issue by saying it is. This is all to do with one thing, and that's you not following a simple rule and being reprimanded for it.

So instead of swallowing your pride, admitting you were in the wrong and moving on, you lash out with these childish posts, insults, sales trashing and threats, trying to get everyone on your side with some kind of "rally against the evil n0$f3ratu$ who will soon hurt everyone on HF", recruiting your friends to join you in this "righteous cause", come on really?

The vast majority of those who own DP have had no issues with the seller and continue to use his software with no problems. And they are also able to follow the simple rule of PM'ing for support. The many, if not hundreds of thank you and vouch posts in his thread are proof positive of this. The only ones who always have an issue are the ones who break the simple rules, as is the case it seems in a lot of things in life.

A moderator has asked for them once to stop sales trashing the products thread and yet they still continue, this only goes to show they can't follow the moderators instructions or the forums rules so it's not surprising they couldn't follow a sellers simple rule of PM'ing for support, bugs, payment issues etc...

Your credibility has gone, and not just with all the scan proofs displayed by other users and the seller, but with every insult and sales trash you still continue to make even when told not to by the moderator - it will only serve to show everyone here that you don't have the right level of maturity to be using these kind of tools in the first place, or even to use a computer without supervision.

So I'll reiterate and hopefully you and your friend may finally understand the whole point;
It is a sales thread, not a support thread. Support is done via PM as stated in the thread and in the application itself.

Continuing to sales trash, making petty threats is just pointless. Just swallow your pride admit you made a mistake and move on.

Now this thread really should be closed, it's gone downhill.

There noone talks about crypting, and crypter Quaility crypteder is GOOD, but person who sell it have problems with nerves.. He banned my 1 year license. Reason: asked him - is him crypter compatible with RxBot.. he answered: "my crypter not for botnet. Your license banned for one week". I dont understand how person with so much reputation do like that.. 50 bucks in air..
