Forming a Team

Project Name : DevHub

About Us

We are entrepreneurs. We build capital through risk and/or initiative. We launch new ventures. We succeed on our capabilities. We rely on our instincts. We are all about innovation. Developers can and will be the best entrepreneurs, we use our developing skills for our own ideas.

What is DevHub ?

Hub for all you developers out there. We all get together under this one roof, and innovate future.

Running projects

Recharge.IM

This project's value when it started was around USD 200-250, The project has processed transactions over INR 2,90,000. The project value is estimated around USD 1500+ today.

We plan on developing such projects via our team. Our projects are all about monetizing. There's no hiring in it. Who ever's a part of the team is a partner.

To apply and be a part of this project use this form

Code [list=1][*]Name :

[*]Want to work as : (Designer/Coder/Programmer)

[*]Proof of talent mentioned :

[/list]

PS - Please dont bother to apply if you cant dedicate any time to the project.

Official Domain : www.devhub.pro

We would soon setup our own forum there to discuss our private projects, Once the team formation is complete.

Vouch for this fellow and for his projects too.

I was a part of it. But cause of my shitty internet connection, I am no more there.

Now enjoying 3.7 MPBS.
Can i back ?
