I have a HUGE project in mind, it would require tons of work, and you must be experianced, have connections possibly, and know MANY languages.

HMU... ?

Uhm, I can't really say what the idea and all of that is..

But you need to be able to design and make a functional site. ?

At least enumerate the languages that are involved for the project. It won't suffice saying "a lot" though.

I can work multiple language, did before Arabic, Spain, Italy, France and similar ...

OpticClient - October 8, 2012, 1:17 pm

Still haven't found anyone yet, we have chance to make a good site and make good money. :)

kformaran - October 8, 2012, 6:37 pm

what language are you referring at ? code language? or language by it self?

if code language, i know javascript and css in language, literally.. english only :)

Yeah, still looking for people. GFXers and coders.

We will be using a CMS and stuff like that to run the site.
