There is many ways to do that like:keyloggers

Phishing

stealers

etc. etc. etc. Try to find some tutorials!

Here is something where u can start:

Sorry that I didn't feel like typing out a complete sentence for some dude who is pissing me off with a stupid question and in all caps. I'm just sick of all these motherfucking noobs thinking that it is as easy as point, click, and it's all done. I have seen this post three times today.
