Thread: [\[IDEA\] Ub3r Apply "Resume Text"](#)

iNuke - October 12, 2012, 9:06 am

Hello HF

I've got a new idea, I don't know if it was already posted but I want to try..

What do you think if we can add a little text when we apply for Ub3r ?

Let me be understandable. When we apply to be a Ub3r Member, Omni think about it and see threads, rep, etc, am I right?

If yes, maybe we can add an espace for text and write some informations about us. For example, we can say what we offered to HF, put some threads links, why we want to be a Ub3r, and more, more, more!

What do you think of this?

Thanks for reading and sorry for my english, I'm french ?

iNuke.

May be a good idea but I don't see how that 'resume' will prove whether or not you are fit for ub3r.

There is no need to insert an text. Kinda useless. I don't support this idea,sorry.

Omni knows you are going to try and kiss his ass if you apply.

Chances are people would just lie about things anyways and Omni would disregard it.

No .. 90% will say : i'm active love HF and your the best omni.

I dont agree.

Omni wants to to save time. That's why he made this system that requires no PM or explanation.

This is useless. Plus people will enter fake shit, omni will have to verify it.

Omni won't waste his time tbh.
