Thread: Proper Infection Posting Guideline

?Mind_?Control™ - October 16, 2012, 3:18 pm

Greetings HF users

Today, I would like to speak about the correct and simple way to post your problem. White Lotus is a main group that will assist you with your infection or other computer problems, but we do ask that you put some effort into your post.

Posting Guideline:

What is the problem you are experiencing?

Have you attempted to correct the problem before posting here?

OPTIONAL: Post pictures of your problem via Gyazo links or Imgur.

Thank you for reading and we look forward to assisting you in all your White Hat Help needs!

That would be great to see people post like that, really would make fixing/assisting other members MUCH easier! Hope more take note and post appropriately!

It would be great if members followed guidelines like this but you know what would be even greater?

If you try to create a new thread in the White Hat Help section, a plugin automatically creates a template/layout that you need to follow in order to request for help.

That would be fantastic! Sadly, I do not possess the knowledge to do this. Neither do I know anyone that does.

To do something like this - It'd be best to have a built in template to the site... Which means Sir Omni' the great would have to approve and do that.

Would be great, but also has some downfalls. . . Not many, but a few.

What are you talking about...?
Rephrase and correct your question, please.

I am sure in a week, once he's unbanned, he will come back and correct it... Or maybe that's wishful thinking !

How cheap can you be? Adfoc for every link known to man or something here man?

Also, I am sure Mind will be editing this to refer to White Lotus' (as he's a member).

But thanks

That just means you were in the dark about it, not that you're not cheap. Just saying.

When you link to another HF post or to a site that is not yours (Malware Bytes) and you throw a add in front of it. . . Seems cheap.

You have fun with your 70 cents baller! I'll go search a grocery store parking lot and the dollar or two I find to you... lol.

EN4CER doesn't get mad, he gives reputation to those who deserve it.

Lets stop ruining the thread :P, anyway it would be good if members could follow the guidelines, would make things easier.

?Mind_?Control™ - November 19, 2012, 2:00 pm

Yes, It would be excellent if members could follow the guideline.

A lot of people just blab some nonsense that doesn't make sense and expect us to attempt to help them.
