Got an issue with the file size, re-uploading to file sharing site and so it will be sent out as soon as it is done.

If you want this then you can still request it and all of the links should be sent out within a few hours (slow internet and it's a 250mb file when compressed)

Skyper - October 26, 2012, 6:39 am

Ok, had to split it into two parts, part one is the largest.

Part one is almost uploaded so I'll send the link out in a few minutes when it's done and then will begin to upload part two.
