Thread: [\[Requesting Youtube Intro\] Looking for someone to make a Youtube intro!](#)

So, as of late I have been wanting to create some more videos and maybe monetize them. But, my old intro uses copy-written music (Korn + Skrillex). Thankfully, I don't have many videos using that intro (not many at all actually) , but if I ever want to start monetizing I need to get a new intro with non copy-written music, I've actually been addicted to RetroFuture Dirty By Kevin MacLeod as of late, really anything by Kevin that gives you a sense of readiness or pumps you up or even just has an oldies techno feel (Who Likes To Party) is awesome.

I don't have any money though ?

But, if I can end up getting some monetizing money, I will gladly pay you the money directly from my YouTube income.

P.S. If you can make me a background as well I will negotiate a larger payment for you, that is if you desire payment at all.

Post here, please do not P.M.

Don't post any info, I will personally message you back with mine.

Stay Fraggy,
