How to prevent skype resolvers from working on you!

Make a new skype and don't use avatar. (If you don't have avatar, you are safe already.)

That is all. ?

But how do I remove the avatar?

I've tried before, but I can't find out to remove it :/

Can anyone vouch for this actually working?

Di?mond - November 11, 2012, 12:47 am

There's no way it works like this, really?

I just found out that it's impossible to delete avatar from skype. ???

But this method really works,

I have avatar so the resolver works for me: rainyboy2037

This guy doesn't have avatar so he cant be resolved: alexis.white33

Well that's unfortunate lol. I guess it's a trade off decision that you'll have to make.

An avatar or the ability to get your IP resolved ?

Haha does this actually work, if it's something to do with your Avatar that's insane, out of all the things I'd thought, that never crossed my mind, going to make a new Skype now, thank you.

Can someone prove this is legit? I might be doing it.

This is fake/doesn't work.

I don't have an avatar, yet I could skype resolve myself.
