Hello everyone, this is Gant. You may know me as Legitti as well from few years back. This is my 3rd account on HF, after Subscription and Legitti. Since i first got banned after i requested it, i got repfucked by hacked staff member and didnt feel like begin here anymore. I also had alot of open deal disputes, im willing to start resolving them with people involved.

I learned my lessons, im no longer scamming anyone, as i didnt as Subscription and i still havent, and i never will. I feel bad that i used to do so, but im honestly asking you to give me another shot. I was really desperat at the time, with bad relationship and no money.

Now i have wonderful life, with awesome wife and home. Regular job with good salary. I dont think i deserve life-sentence for what i did. In my world, everyone deserves a new oppoturnity. Its not fun for me to hide who i am, as i really dont want to, i want to be great example that people really can change, but it all starts from themselvs. I ernald peoples trust 2 of 3 times, i only blew the first try. Lets see if i can do it 3rd time, its all up to you.

Im trying to be best of me as part of the community, help others and conduct legitmate business, i was stupid enough not to realize how stupid and lowlife i was when i scammed few people, but thats not me anymore, thats past and happend over 2 years ago, as Prodigy got new chance, im asking you to give me one too.

I wont let anyone down, i wont let Community down.

Thanks

Ps. I already talked to omni. He allowed me to stay. This is for community. To you.

Isn't it against the rules to make more accounts?

You seem like a good member, some people scam in the past but people can change.

Well this could end up as another bust in a year from now when you become "trusted" (if that is even going to happen again) then mass people get scammed. But who knows, people change...

Not going to happen, i have completely changed and i cant stand scammers myself anymore, i wish i could take it all back but i cant.

I cant change the past, but im doing my everything for the future.

Well, I am just saying that it is all words. Didn't you say something about repaying people? Now if I do see actions like that, then maybe I am more convinced. I will give you the benefit of the doubt for now, and I hope you truly mean what you say.

Yeah, i dont ask anyone to trust me yet, just let the time tell.

Ill start working on getting those reports solved soon.

Until You can prove what you want for the community, a bad reputations stays with you.

Remember that, Young Padawon.

You can pay back the people that you scammed. The fact is you are always going to have the reputation of being a huge scammer. No one is going to trust you in bigger trades.

I promise I wont scam again people will fall for this hahaahhaha, stupid HF
Cool story. Once a scammer, always a scammer.
