Synopsis

Kamikura Hiroki is an art student at the local school Nadesico Academy (High School and college level) whom intends to be an art teacher in the future. He is also the advisor to the high school arts society where his cousin, Housen Elis, attends. While Elis is a painter like Hiroki, Hiroki seems to have given up on his dreams and no longer paints. There appears to be some mysterious trauma in the both of their pasts which may have changed them. Meanwhile, the high school hires a new PE teacher, Kikyo Kiri. On the first day, she s into Hiroki and is stunned. Here is the boy she confessed to and he refused her...

Characters: (7/10)

The characters personality of this series are easy to find in other anime's that you may have watched. Most include comedy, these characters are hilarious and funny to watch as they all grow closer to each other!

Art (8/10)

The art is one of the biggest things that i loved about this anime. It was clean, that is one of the biggest things in anime that makes me want to watch more of it. Not to mention this anime is about art, the artwork the was "drawn" had an amazing presence.

Story: (9/10)

I loved the story, i couldn't stop watching it. It dragged me in within the first moments of watching it. The powerful heart wrenching scenes which just made me blubber like a baby to comedic and hilarious scenes which got me laughing so hard i could cry.

Enjoyment: (9/10)

I enjoyed this anime all the way through to the end. I don't think i stopped watching, there was always something that made me want to keep on watching till the very end. But then again i love anime's that have a heart warming feel to them.

Overall: (8/10)

This whole anime came together and made it wonderful to watch. I would recommend this to anyone who enjoys watching a good heart warming story and doesn't mind laughing a little bit. Has to be one of my favorite anime's lately and definitely re-watch quality.
