Well I have decided to do something nice for the community. I will be giving away a method that I used to make an easy 300$ on autopilot, this method is ideal for people new to the ppd scene.

If you are an uber member you will get a direct download.

If you are a leet/regular member you will get a survey.

The reason I am doing it like this is because I could easily fix up this method and make it look nicer and sell it to make more money. ?
