Thread: [\[\$5 PayPal\] Wikipedia Game - Game #1 - Fun and Easy to Play!](#)

VoidEx. - November 28, 2012, 7:49 am

Welcome to my contest!

This is a little game that is often enjoyable and fun at the same time. I hope you participate in it whether it be for the prize or just for a little fun.

I may turn this into a regular contest if enough people are interested.

To be able to participate in this content you must meet the follow requirements.

Have overall Positive Reputation

Be a HQ member. (Content is open to Ub3r's, L33T's and Regular Members)

Have no confirmed scam reports.

If you do not meet the above requirements, you are not eligible to play and claim a reward.

The Wikipedia game is simple. You start on a specific Wikipedia page and must use links within the Wikipedia page to make your way towards another specific page.

The winner is the person who is able to do this in the least number of pages. Each time a player uses a link to go to another page, they are completing one 'step'.

The initial page and final page are both treated as steps. So if I started on the Issac Newton Page (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Isaac_Newton) and clicked on the word Physics to take me the Physics Page (<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Physics>), I would have completed 2 steps. Obviously, the competition will involve harder challenges.

Some Rules:

Do not use links on the header or sidebar of wikipedia. The search is obviously not allowed, random article is not allowed, you cannot navigate to the homepage. Only use links within an article.

First person to post a variety of steps locks in that path (do not edit your post, otherwise your entry is void).

In the event of a tie (where 2 different paths are found but with the same amount of steps), the prize money will be equally shared among the winners.

I must be able to replicate your steps to confirm your entry. Wikipedia is constantly updated so if a page is updated before I can check then your entry is void because I have no way of verifying the entry.

Contest will close when enough people have entered. I will decide on a fair time to close the comp.

DO NOT PM ME!!! unless if you really want to. Tits.

This is an example of a 3 step solution for Issac Newton to Physics.

Code [b]# of Steps:[/b] 3

[b]Solution:[/b] Isaac Newton > Physicist > Physics

There is actually a 3 step solution to this one. :D

Remember if you tie the winner using a different path, you also get a share of the money.

GOT IT:

Number of steps 3

GOLD> CHINESE CHARACTER> CHICKEN ?.

Damn fuck, that aint a link. ?

Random - November 28, 2012, 8:35 am

I found the word "Chicken" in 3 steps but not a link D:

Was it my route ^^^? I thought I had cracked it. Pardon the egg pun.

tres - November 28, 2012, 8:42 am

Has this competition finished already? Do another one, but more difficult.

Feather? - November 28, 2012, 8:44 am

I think I found it.

of Steps: 3

Solution: Gold>Ascorbate>Chicken

Edit it according to the "standard".

Congrats! You did it in 3 steps!

(Nov 28, 2012 09:42 AM)tres Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Has this competition finished already? Do another one, but more difficult.

Going to be leaving it open for a little more to see if anyone manages to do another 3 step path and then i'll start game #2.

Also should I keep the comp bound to 1 thread instead of making multiple? Or would multiple threads keep it cleaner and easier to follow? :D

Feather? - November 28, 2012, 8:58 am

I say go with another thread to keep it clean. Fun contest :)

VoidEx. - November 29, 2012, 4:11 am

Comp Closed!

Feather was the winner this time!

Thanks to all for participating, new contest will be out shortly!
