Thread: Found a Big LFI vulnerable Website \(Well i think\)

EMPIRERAIDER - December 2, 2012, 4:15 am

look at this: <http://naturalhistory.uga.edu/index.php>.

If this LFI vulnerable Website feel free to Deface it if you want i do not care since we are a community.

Please do not flame if i am wrong guys

- 1.It isnt vulnerable
- 2.It's not that big

Look at number 1, all vulnerabilities come with user input.On the page specified there is not user input except for the odd search bar.

Why would I flame braw? :P I remember K'OD & CyberSec well :P

EMPIRERAIDER - December 2, 2012, 4:24 am

Yes me too i remeber that it was one of the best in my opinion

Illicit - December 2, 2012, 4:24 am

My bad that is vulnerable ! Why didnt you include the input >:

EMPIRERAIDER - December 2, 2012, 4:28 am

Okay you deface it man you are my friend so take it

SIM-974023 - December 2, 2012, 4:30 am

Anyone experienced in LFI give this a go.

EMPIRERAIDER - December 2, 2012, 4:32 am

Yep i agree people i am more experiecned in RFI

benzi - December 2, 2012, 4:35 am

its vuln to lfi,but magic quotes is on,so you can use null byte to ignore the .php
