"All money I spend on these Humble Bundles will be 100% for charity"

He is donating $1 for 6 games every time, for a value of $200 acting like he is donating to charity. $6 would make sense if it came with SR3, and he was helping charity with it, but come on. He is abusing a charitable source.

I'm donating $1 to charity each time I buy a package? So what? Every cent counts. This giveaway is 100% free and I'm spending my own money to bring games to others. Please stop denouncing my intentions and I on my threads. Some people live on under $1 a day. Guess what? Not everyone is as rich as you. If I were to give out 12 packages with SR3, that'd be $72. I can't afford that. I do wish you'd just stop complaining.

THQ has already finished making the games. They're not losing money if I buy their finished games. I'm NOT abusing a charitable source. They make the games for profit. If I buy the games for $1, that doesn't mean they're losing money. It means they're gaining reputation for money being donated to charity. I'm sick of you saying these fallacious and unreasonably malicious things. I'd rather have 12 people enjoy some games for Christmas than 2 people enjoying the same games + SR3. It's called spreading the love. Yes, I'm a left-winger. You have no right to judge me. Good day.

Was wondering if I can possibly get this, thanks a lot, good to see your money goes all to charity :)

Ezrik - December 8, 2012, 7:33 pm

I would love to get this mate, thank you very much :D

?asp3r - December 8, 2012, 7:40 pm

Hey mate, I enjoy what you are doing for charity. Its nice to give back.

If you don't want the games, give the key to me, and I'll send it to a friend who is unable to buy them.

I only ask that if I don't get a key, that the games do not go to waste. Send the keys to a charity too.

Edit:

Sorry I didn't see the requirement for Reputation. I Was just so happy people were giving charity, then donating their "reward" for donating to children in need. I am sorry I wasted your time with even replying. I hope you make a lot of children happy!

Merry Christmas and have a wonderful life.

123boom - December 8, 2012, 7:43 pm

I was banned from HackForums for 7 days for posting market-related threads outside the marketplace. I'm PMing you now with a full refund of your BitCoins, as you have already built your CoinCrypt application in my absence. I offer my apologies for the inconvenience.
