How To Crypt And Spread Your RAT

For this tutorial I will be showing a common method of spreading your RAT and reasons for crypting it.

Part 1: Crypting

Okay to me this part is crucial, the whole point of crypting a RAT is to make it undetectable by anti-virus software.

For this section I am going to be using Chronic Crypter which is $15 for lifetime and in all honesty one of the best!.

Link: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3089738>

I understand not everyone can afford a crypter but there are free ones out there and if you spend the time to do a survey or two you are guaranteed a amazing FUD time.

In this case I suggest Insanity Crypter it is what I used before I went private.

I will show a quick example of a crypt!.

1. Make sure you created a server first! If not then please refer to my first tutorial <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3093133>

2. Start your crypter

Every crypter varies but in example I am going to be setting it up to look like a image.

- Input: This will be our server we made
- Encryption Key: This is what will be helping keep our server FUD
- Icon: This is where you can put a icon on the exe itself.

After you done all that click build and then scan to see if it is FUD.

In my case today it started getting detected so a new stub update will be needed. You can also try another encryption key to see if it helps.

These are what the finished products look like.

Part 2: Spreading your FUD

There are many methods of spreading and I am only going to cover the simple ones.

WareZ this is my preferred method! And I will share how I do it.

1. Get a piece of software off a torrent!

2. Unpack it where ever

3. I have put some tools that you need here:

Code <http://#.com/files/909367662/tutorial.rar>

Firstly we need the icon there is no point in using jpg icon if it has a setup icon.

Step 1: Open your icon grabber and navigate to the directory of the software.

Step 2: Click on the exe and click save and save it where you know it is.

Now there are multiple choices for this next step. I am lucky in my crypter I have a file binder but some people don't so how you approach that is up to you!

If you don't have a file binder I call it crack or patch etc. and let them run it. Possibly make a fake NFO or Readme file they fall for your sick twisted entertainment.

If you have a file binder then it is a simple in my case mine was built into chronic crypter.

I have just added a filebinder for you all to use it is available here

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3118312>

Step 1: Follow the first part of my tutorial!

Step 2: Bind your server with the software

I wont be going into the extra options, just read the help file that comes with which ever crypter!

Before I build I am lucky enough to clone all the information off the exe which if someone looks at it, then it will look like the original.

I wont be putting in the software information for this tutorial. So I scanned the crypter instead.

That is it! Rather simple really. Once it is all built your good to go!

All you do now is uploading to a file sharing site and upload to a website!.

Besides the fact of spreading through warez sites like me you can also torrent them!.

The other famed method is spreading through omegle which I am not a fan of.

If you want to go more advanced you can use a java drive by method which in my opinion your better off purchasing a FUD one which is silent from the market!.

That concludes this tutorial if I can add anything or improve anything let me know it is also in a nice ebook format again.

Now here is your download link for the Ebook format if you want to add it to your archive :)

diastolik - October 19, 2018, 12:51 pm

wow this looks like a great method for spreading it....so it masks as a ICO instead of an exe? is that it? so u can just send somebody a picture and it'll run a background process.?

ksharma - October 21, 2018, 12:10 am nice tut. i will try it later...

Well create a exe and change it to a image ICO so it will be say file.exe with a image ICO so now change the filename.exe to s.exe then reverse the extentsion to .jpg so now the file will look like sexe.jpg with a image as the ICO

You create your rat/virus/keylogger etc & then you crypt it to bypass AVs. What exploit are you referring to?

cry0crypt - July 21, 2019, 2:21 am

Great tut, will be trying this for myself
