Thread: New to AA? Post here first!

Black Hole - December 18, 2012, 9:46 pm

Soo, couldn't help but notice just a few new faces around these parts and I wanted to hear from them. So, if you're new to the AA community 1) READ THE FUCKING STICKIES 2) Post here in this thread and tell us about yourself. Doesn't have to be anything personal, could be anime related, could be more of an introduction, whatever.

I also want to know if you plan on becoming an active member of our family. Participating in AA community events such as the AA Christmas giveaway and Secret Santa things, or any other upcoming events? Going to vote in our polls and register positive, helpful feedback to the numerous threads in our section?

How about contribute to our section with reviews of your own, thoughtful and productive threads related to anime or even coordinating events of your own? All of these and more will make your stay here in the AA community even better.

Don't be shy, come and stay awhile. We have lolis.

Alexchaos - December 18, 2012, 10:24 pm

Ohai there!

My name's Alex but I guess it's obvious if you look at my username.

I'm 19, male, atheist, frenchie(from Quebec). I practice Kung Fu to stay in shape since I'm always on the computer.

I'm a MMO gamer. I play WoW and GW2. Though I'm kinda bored with both of them atm. Played many other MMOs too.

I've been watching anime since a few years now but really got into it like 5 years ago.

I watch pretty much any genre except hentai. Not that anime girls aren't cute but I prefer the real thing.

I'm trying to be an active member and will be participating into events in the futur.

I'm not too good at doing reviews or similar stuff but I do like giving my opinion.

I wouldn't mind organizing stream events but I can't because of my upload limit with my current internet provider.. =(

Ice Queen - December 18, 2012, 11:10 pm

Warning: Posters may be subjected to Black Hole rage in future threads.

Post on your own risk.

Serious-ish: Is this an introduction thread for new folks in AA? Good initiative Black Hole, with the amount of newcomers.

Focusal - December 18, 2012, 11:38 pm

Hi, I been browsing through AA for awhile, but very rare of me to post.

Anyways, my name is John, and I am nineteen years old.

Currently in college majoring in Network Engineering with a concentration in Network Security.

My hobbies includes photography, watching anime, playing xbox/LoL, hanging with friend, and explore "haunted" places in NJ, where I live.

I like to watch anime, except hentai cause my friend showed me some hentai with octopus tents and shit and that mind fucked me.

I wouldn't mind being a active member, especially with Black Hole doing those live streams :D

SO hai!

Sorry I had to :P

And as for an introduction. Been with HF for a while now (though not that long. Seems like a while though) I have come here several times, but I post very rarely. I do enjoy anime quite a lot, and am a member of my college Anime Club.

As for more personal stuff.

I am a Sophomore studying Criminal Justice. I Love playing video games of all sorts.

Also I am 2 posts away from 666. At which point I will never post again.

I am also a very relaxed person that doesn't judge. Nice to meet everyone.

Origami~ - December 19, 2012, 5:35 am

Konnichiwa~

I'm Skylix, my real name is Erwin, 15 years old, french. I like to watch anime because for me this is an another world that I can draw myself in, I only like anime with a good story, I don't like comedy anime or slice-of-lives one, I prefer psychological ones, drama, action, horror etc.

Except this, I code some LUA in Garry's Mod (I've played it for about 3k hours, fucking love this game, he is fantastic for RP). I love RolePlay and been exercising it for about 3-4 years, my kind of games that I play are RPG, RTS, ARPG, and sometimes FPS.

I love the country of japan for his culture, for his habitants, there's a lot of things to learn about Japan.

mata ne~

Incest - December 19, 2012, 6:33 am

I've been posting in here for a couple months, but I guess I'm new.

I'm Incest, and I like anime. I participate in some of the events, but not all of them because I'm not in AnimeFAN! yet. I don't think I meet the post reqs, but eventually I will.

I like all kinds of anime, but I usually drop 4-koma adaptations if they bore the shit out of me.

Lonephenom™ - December 19, 2012, 6:35 am

Hey Anime Adventure,

My name is Lonephenom, and I love every single one of you. All of you are nice, smart, outgoing who spend a considerate amount of time looking at anime. You are everything good in the world. Honestly, who doesn't like anime? I mean, it's fun , but let's all take this to a whole new level. This is even better than watching anime alone .

Don't be a stranger. Just hit me up with your Skype. I'm pretty much happy. I am a mod of /r/nekomimi, and starter on my minus account . What do guys/girls play, I also enjoy sharing explicit material , and have a banging Anime list (it just blows my mind; Shit was SO cash). You are all awesome who should just enjoy yourselves. Thanks for listening.

Pic Related: It's me and my waifu.

I couldn't figure out a better template.

CloudShepherd - December 19, 2012, 10:42 am

Not that new around here, but relatively.

Name's Cloud/Ghost, don't ask my real name 'cuz I don't like it.

I came to these forums just to be part of something, gather more information, and have fun, or I guess you could say "Broaden my horizons." I usually start flames on other forums and on these I do my best to keep that from happening. (Like literally 9/10 times I request help from another forum, the first post I start a flame. I dunno, people on the internet are bitches and they can go fuck themselves for all I care. /mini rant)

Though I don't want it to be like that all the time. >_>

I'm currently trying my best to judge everything as fairly as possible. Another one of my certain "Life principles" I go by. Not a religion (Well... Yes and no), it's just some things I think will keep my head on straight and will be for the best for me.

Anyway, I love.... ahem LOVE anime and everything Japan. Sometimes I truly wish I wasn't born in this country called "The United States" and was born in Japan, instead. There would be plenty of more people I would be able to become friends with IRL and nothing here in the states meets my true interests. I just feel out of place. Though, I don't think it's THAT bad here... Could be worse. >_>

In case your wondering it is one of my life dreams to visit Japan and possibly live there some day. Some day.

ObeseViking - December 19, 2012, 10:46 am

I guess im fairly new then.

My name is Sosuke and im 17 years old, im also Japanese but i dont live in Japan moved from there when i was about 2-3-ish and now i live in Norway on my free time i watch anime, play games and c-walk.

ps: i cant read or write in Japanese but i can speak it.

Oh hai there ?

I've been perusing this subforum and decided I'd like to be more active in it. I thoroughly enjoy reading all the recommendations and discussions so naturally I was drawn here. I've been downloading lots of anime and once I'm done watching them I can contribute to AA via reviews, suggestions, etc.

From what I've heard this is a pretty tight community that's very friendly and I'd like to be a part of it. That's all for now, I have a lot of anime to watch ?

letsPlayUp - December 29, 2012, 11:07 pm

Hello, I'm Chard. Anime fan since 2009.

I've watched several animes and I'm loving Psychological and Mystery genres.

I've collected some anime files in my laptop and also been downloading full song of animes.

If you need a song, I'll try to find it for you. :)

Angel Beats! - December 29, 2012, 11:08 pm

I've been watching Anime for near 5 years, and well, I'm not really new to AA (been here over a year now :O), I haven't posted much recently so many new guys probably have never heard of me.

Hello, I'm fama, I like gays and women. Key anime are my favorite, and the plural of anime is still anime, don't be an idiot.

DarkShadowz - December 29, 2012, 11:44 pm

Been here for 2 years, became active 4 months ago.

I like all sorts of genre, but have an awkward hate for mechas. I like to make AMV's and games. Watched anime for 2 years, did programming for 8 years.

Yokomoto - January 28, 2013, 10:38 am

Well hehe, here I go.

First of all hello people in the AA section, to the OP black hole, thank you for making such topic for us new people to post in.

My name is Hicham, pronounched as Hichem. As you can see my name on hackforums is Yokomoto. I started watching anime only recently. I really enjoy it trough ! I am 15 years old and I live in the Netherlands, Europe. The first real non translated anime I watched was Death Note, so a really good start of my anime life. I am currently watching Sword Art Online ;)

I use animefreak, gogoanime and I download my anime sometimes. I also have some anime kind of stuff in my room.

Some of my favorite anime:

- Angel Beats !
- Death Note
- Highschool DxD
- Btooom !
- Asura Cryin'
- Code Geass

and much more ;3

My name on myanimelist is asurasan . I hope I will have a nice time here in the AA section.

See you around!

Regards! Yokomotu!

Hi, my name is Phil.

No.

Hey! My name is Phil, I'm 15 and love anime. ^noshit^

I'm usually quite a ^bitch^ to get along with, but once were clean civil I'm usually the good guy.

You can access my MAL here.

My fav. animes are:

Deathnote before it went mainstream

HoTD before it went mainstream

Bleach always been mainstream

Sword Art Online VERY slow at getting to this one, #1 all time

Feel free to PM me, contact me via skype - ThePhill97 or do whatever you please!

Hello and welcome to our little community. Hope you'll stay with us and consider join our unofficial forum group AnimeFAN!, and it's residential forumboard.

While we don't expect a lot, we ask you to spend a minute or two of your time to read over this guide before considering to make any kind of recommendation thread. Meeting said criteria is commendable even, and we'll gladly help you out. Not doing so may have you put as a subject of inflammation.

One last advice; don't take anything people say in here, or on any anime-related image or forumboard out there seriously. Shape your own taste in anime and don't let anyone do it for you, enjoy what you enjoy and nothing else. You will come to see people trying to shove their opinions on you, you will come to realize your taste altering due to a rant some random guy left you on your favorite anime. Giving in will only have you get jaded sooner than you otherwise would.

Regards, douche.

Recruitment is closed until further notice. We are doing something different now called the GM Student Program. Basically we take it in aspiring GM's who don't quite meet the level of GM standards and take them into a training program for a month. If we see improvement they become full fledged masters.

This happens once a month so keep your eye on the group sub-forum for the next student sign-up.

Hi I'm Sander, I'm 15 years old and I'm from Belgium. :)

Recently I've been watching anime more and more lately...(too much!)

I watch about 5 episodes a day, and I think thats a bit much...But yeah, who cares! :D

My favorite genres are: Ecchi, Romance and Advanture..

I'm not a fan of the dirty Hentai ;l (Like Bloody and Tentacles stuff...)

But I can't say I don't like to watch some nice Hentai somethimes... ?

My favorite anime are: Melancholy of Haruhi Suzumiya, Sword Art online, Air Gear, To Love-Ru..

And I play on starting to read the novels of Sword Art Online.

So..Yeh this is me. :)

Hi, I am MrVeNG. I watched anime first when I was 9-10, and Rosario+Vampire is the anime that really got me into anime (mostly ecchi). I mostly watch anime on the weekends, which is when I will be most active on AA. I download most of my anime and watch 12-14 episodes from 12AM-6AM (then sleep for like 14 hours). I hope to stay a part of AA for a long time, and eventually, when I meet the requirements, I want to join AnimeFAN group.

Call me: Scrump

Gender: Female

Religion: None, but I'm totally cool with Jesus and God and all that :) So I'm pretty open minded.

Favorite Sport: Equestrian

Favorite Anime Genre: I like ALL anime, seriously! Action, comedy, Romance, Sci-fi, Drama Yuri, Vampire, Zombies, Ecchi, Horror, you name it.

I'm learning how to use HackForums still, but I'm working on being more involved! Anime Adventures is probably what I will be posting in most, so I would love to become part of the family. I rarely read manga because I haven't been exposed to that much yet, but I'm willing to try it! Anime is half the definition of my life, because I do have a social life as well haha... I love writing reviews and telling people what I like, and just helping out in general. I got really into anime about 4 years ago, yeah, I'm a newbie compared to some of you, but I LOOOVE it. My hobbies include, Anime, Singing, Photography, Art, Drama, and a whole bunch of other stuff. I've posted a decent amount for the 2 days I've been here. Haven't done any RP, but it looks interesting enough, so I'm also willing to try that.

Hi im Chris but i go by Barrier

Big fan of Boku no Pico think its really made it self one of the most influential anime of this decade and brought many fans to us today, the animation + storyline just brought it over the top and till this day one of my favorites

vegetajgd - May 18, 2013, 9:50 pm

Hey my name is Nittin and i am from india.

I registered here quite a while back but the kinda went away and was not active much.

And also as the name suggests big fan of DB series. and also liked death note, Naruto Series, xxxholic, Quenns Blade ?

I would also really appreciate if you would recommend any animes that i should watch.

And i have a special ability ?

I have a knack of finding links for animes with the best quality you can find on internet and with the minimest (new word i just made up) (^_^) of file sizes. I also encode too but lots and lots of work to be done in that direction.

And also am Kiinda of collector in the sorts of animes. Dont have many but the 9-10 i have are the best you can ind out on internet :)

And also will help here as much as i can. and of course hoping to learn a lot from all of you here :D :)

signing off for now.

Adios

Hi! My name is Cam, I'm 16 and live in Canada. In grade 5, this new student brought in the Full Metal Alchemist #1, and he let me read it. I was so mesmerized by the story, and read all the books. 6 years later, and I still have not watched the Anime for it. But since then, I got into Naruto, Death Note, One Piece, Fairytail, and a hugeeee long list of Anime's over the years. I've also been to comicon in Calgary Alberta 5 years in a row.

Hello, I have been surfing AA for quite a while now, I haven't ever posted much in it however. I've been reading manga since about the third grade but just started to watch anime on a regular basis about half a year ago. I hope to become an active member of AA and to increase my knowledge of various anime as well as the various anime that I watch. I would like to preemptively thank everyone for the anticipated warm welcome!

P.S. I am currently watching Hunter x Hunter on CrunchyRoll and re-reading Bleach on MangaFox.

keoni - May 25, 2013, 12:39 am

I used to be active on here a long time ago on a different account (someone stole the account and was distributing malicious content on it while my internet was out for a month). I've been watching manga since 2010 roughly, however, in the past year, all I've done is read manga. The most recent show I've watched was either SAO back in March or Chuunibyou (I can't remember when I watched this)... I'm already reading Date A Live & Attack On Titan (I was pretty fucking excited when I saw they were getting animated)

I can probably recommend a few manga to anyone who wants to start reading so I'll just leave my skype below...

keoni.worby

OH. I just remembered I watched Jormungand and half of the second season too. It was okay, but it always felt like it could be more. It didn't have the same violence as Black Lagoon, and it lacked in the department of character development for me. I know they tried, but it just felt too weak to me.

Hi everyone. So, I've been on HF for a while and I guess I am just a lurker by nature (if you take note of my posts). I've been lurking around AA for a little bit (couple months now).. selectively posting here and there too. I wanted to post in this thread sooner but I was really busy with finals and haven't been around much recently. Now that the semester is over.. I'll be here a lot more.

Anyway, I'm not sure what else to say. I just kind of wanted to make my presence known. I guess I've come to like AA because I don't have anyone else IRL that shares an interest in anime and this section isn't too intimidating for people that are relatively new.. as long as you read the stickies! I hope to be a pretty active member in the future.

So yeah I think that's about it. See ya 'round.

Hey guys, I'm Conan.

I've only really started getting into this section, I used to be another lurker.
I plan on becoming active in here. I've seen some of the events and whatnot run in here, and would love to be apart of them one day.

I'm 18 years old, live in Australia and love video games.
I've been watching anime since the early 2000s. I can remember watching Cardcaptor Sakura with my sister and some of the Studio Ghibli films.

I've recently started reading the manga's to most of the shows I've watched and realized I've been missing a lot.

I'll watch almost anything nowadays, I enjoy a bit of ecchi and hentai.
I've still yet to drop a show, I'll give you a medal if you can find one that I would drop ?

I heard there was an AA Skype chat - I would love to be added to it if there is. My Skype name is: educating Hope to see some of you guys around ?

Seen a lot of new faces again. Post here new animu fegs!!

Omshivam - February 25, 2014, 12:45 pm

I've been a member on HF for a while but started posting in the AA section some time last year. I haven't formally introduced myself but some of you may know me from the AA Skype chat. I remember people were asking who I was, and I said 'Omshivam' on HF but I haven't posted much so they didn't know me.

On HF, my name is Omshivam. ?

I first started watching anime a long time ago when InuYasha was on Toonami although I didn't know that it was anime at the time.

After that I didn't watch anime at all until my sophomore year of high school when I started watching Yu-Gi-Oh and InuYasha just to see how the story went on. I became more interested in anime after watching HOTD and Fullmetal Alchemist on Netflix and I started watching more series and here I am, 45 anime series later.

Personally, I think watching anime is great, but discussing it is even more fun because you get to know what other people think about it and see their interpretations. I also want to write an anime review in the future if I happen to get time to do so. I'll probably search for an anime that hasn't been done yet and see if I'd be willing to write for it. ? Look forward to that!

Other things I like to do: Occasional graphic design, watch dramas that aren't anime, play video games, Osu!, learning new things, writing.

Feel free to add me as a friend on Osu! My name is 'Omsh' on there.

I'm also learning C++ and the Japanese language at the moment.

I plan on always posting thoughtful content so I won't be subjected to Black Hole's rage. ?
