Thread: How to e-whore on craigslist!

?Italy ? - December 20, 2012, 12:48 am

So my strategies:

- Avoid the people actually looking for a relationship
- Target the older men and the upper 20's guys
- DONT LOOK AT THE SHIT THEY SEND YOU (all dicks basically... will scar younger people for life lol)
- Wait for their response and mass mail back
- You win some you lose some that is my theory
- eWhore at night (I get more money that way because of the area I target)

Step by step eWhoring:

1. Get an alias... Make a name for your bitch. (I have mine as "Lindsey Br) Not saying the last name cause you can think of your own

2. Make a hotmail account. Hotmail

---I make it with the first and last name of my whore. So LindseyBr@live.com
---Verify it with your phone number or someones phone number (I used mine since I honestly don't care if hotmail has my number. Also you can have a slave do it. Send them an email like "Just to know you are real text me back the numbers that this sends you" they get an email from hotmail, they send you the code, boom verified, no more daily sending limit with emails. This can also be done to phone verify another craigslist account.)

3. Got to craigslist and pick an area to target. (Not saying my target, but it is an area I am familiar with it and if creeps want to make small talk then you can talk them back and it shows that you are real because you have a general idea of the area)

4. Go to Craigslist

- Go to "Women Seeking Men" (Say your over 18 if you are not)
- Go to the "Post" in the to right of the screen
- Post that "You are a woman" seeking "A man" then next screen put "Sex NSA" should be the bottom one and post
- Doesn't really matter what you put in the title and description as long as you have a pic and she is hot then you will get responses from men of all ages.
ex: This is what I say
---When they see treat you right it automatically makes some people think you were abused or had an asshole of an ex boyfriend so they for some reason flock to it and talk all this bullshit how they are the best and like no other man on the planet and still know how to treat someone with respect (This is good and bad, when they see that some just want to know what happened, but some want to prove it with their money that they can treat you right.)
- After you are done typing press "continue" at the bottom of the screen
- It will give you your post and what it is going to look like ex: This is what mine looks like
- Then you will get an email sent to the email you wished to receive the replies from and just do all that shit and your ad will be posted.
- Press "Accept Terms of Use" and wait 10 min for your shit to be posted

5. Now the fun part

- Go grab a beer, or something to do while you wait 10 minutes for it to be posted
- Usually I throw a lip in and play some games or go on Facebook

6. Wait for the emails

- You will get bombarded with emails so this is why it is advised to make a separate email so that your inbox doesn't fucking tweak balls when you get 50 emails in 20 min.
- Stay on top of them or they will pile up or the guys will get offline

7. What to say when getting the emails

- I send "Hey, I am selling some pictures if you are interested . Selling 100+ nudes and I accept paypal <3. Thanks xoxo Lindsey"
- Basically be a flirt (Its weird, but fuck it your getting money)
- Also kinds looks like a spam message so reply back to what they say maybe send them a tease picture if they ask for a sample.

Rules when replying back

- Dont use more than one or two or per email. Looks fake as fuck after a while
- Be sure to use "lol"... Makes pedos nut on their screens
- Sound dumb like you don't know what you are doing and that this is the first time and you just want some money.

-After replying it is kind of like fishing (no not like accounts, but actual fishing) Some days you don't get shit and some days you get one big one and a few small ones and sometimes they get away. I say this all relating to money. Someone send me $60 for 40 pics... He's a big fish. I sent a guy 100 pics for $10 he's a guppy.

-I never set a price on the pics I send these guys because you never know what they want from you. Sometimes they will low ball you and sometimes they will pay you a lot.

Thats pretty much what I do when I eWhore. Wait for them to pay me, send them some pics and then never reply to them again. I haven't had anyone come back for more pics yet, but if you do find someone like that it means they like you. Milk them for as much money as you can.

Also on a side note there are jealous assholes out there who don't think you are real and who only want a real relationship... so they will flag your post and get it removed. When this happens fuck them. Make a new one and keep on keeping on.

Advanced tricks and tips

I don't use these yet, so I won't get into them really, but will update when I do

- You can blackmail your slave. Send them messages from an @fbi.gov email to milk them out of more money
- Make an aim for your girl. Some people still use it and want to chat that way.
- Make her a fake Facebook. Only if you have lots of her pics of her not nude, which I can't do with this girl, but will when I get another picture pack.

I think that is about it for now. I will continue to update this with tips and tricks for people who are interested.

Shit not to do:

- Dont ever go first (you'll get scammed 11/10 times)
- Dont have a sketchy paypal email (my first one was "Fuck@lemon.com" people thought it was sketchy and I lost a few deals out of it... Make it the same or similar to the email you whore on

- If they ask for a preview, send them a tease
- Dont get too involved (Your there for 1 reason... money who gives a fuck about small talk or their life story. The more you talk the more they want to meet up)
- Dont open pictures (Don't want to see any dicks other than my own!)

I found this guide very interesting and I decided to copy/paste it on hf. No copyrights included. ?

I don't know, you can try Sydney ,New York, Las Vegas :-??

Hatim - December 22, 2012, 4:28 am

Craigslist e-whoring is saturated and does not make any good money... waste of time.

?Italy ? - December 22, 2012, 4:31 am

Can you tell us any other good website to e-whore on ? :)

y0Blade - December 22, 2012, 6:17 am

This is a great tutorial, but whats the best website to eWhore on?

Neulen - December 22, 2012, 1:15 pm

dude i love you <3, i hope i gonna make some cash <333
