Thread: Envy protector lifetime license \(

gozer - December 22, 2012, 12:31 am

Hi,

i've been purchased few months ago the full life license...

Seem this license don't work anymore with the actual Envy Crypter :(

how have a working version plz ? without pay twice the license

thanks

PS/

PM Envy author but no reply

and i can't put this message on the market place (not enough right)

They changed / updated their licence database, you need to contact them with proof of purchase and email used in the purchase and they will give you a new license.

Thanks for your reply northman

but i've been contacted several times Cynecx for updating my licence but still no reply

i thought i paid for a support and easy contact... something wrong ? :-/
