Thread: [\[Official\] Naruto Discussion Thread \[/Official\]](#)

Tasemu - January 1, 2013, 8:30 pm

For various reasons explained many times naruto discussion will be limited to this thread and the weekly chapter release threads to avoid people remaking the same thread 50 times.

iMario - January 1, 2013, 8:59 pm

I like this idea but this have been made multiple times and the thread dies within a certain time. I would suggest this thread to get a sticky, so it won't die. You can ask Omni...

Other than that, can't wait the next manga to be released! I'll read it directly when I wake up tomorrow! :)

Tasemu - January 1, 2013, 9:04 pm

Those werent enforced and this will be. Im making this one as a backup so between chapter discussion posts we dont have to put up with that crap. ^^

Tsunade - January 1, 2013, 9:09 pm

Here's a few things I'd like to discuss on Naruto...

1. I believe that Naruto will indeed attain the rinnegan, just as Sasuke attains the Mangekyo.

Why?

Rikudou Sennin, creator of ninjutsu, had two sons, both with a visual prowess, Sharingan and Rinnegan I believe. They then proceeded to mate and create mutations of those visual powers such as Byakugan. The rinnegan was eventually passed down to Nagato Senju, but he couldn't access the rinnegan he had senju power and uchiha power.. this is where obito stepped in (when he was younger), gave him power, and when his family was killed, his rinnegan awakened. Now, what I believe is that during the war, Naruto will lose so many precious comrades including Sasuke & Neji, his rinnegan will awaken and he will gain the power to defeat obito, or seal him. Naruto received power from Itachi in the first Naruto series as a child.

This thread has been remade multiple times by different people every time. The problem is these threads never stay alive so I say why bother.

No, all we need is people who are dedicated to keeping this thread alive and people who will refer others here when needed. Spaghetti monster knows I will.

Before i start, i wana say i'll start posting in here daily to keep it alive at first XD

Now let the discussion begin

Um, first i want to correct you, Naruto received a "power" from Itachi in the Naruto Shippuden, not the original. Remember Naruto ran into Itachi in the forest and he crammed the crow down narutos thought, that was the power. And i believe Naruto actually already used the power Itachi gave him when Naruto was fighting someone, cant remember who. Who knows, thier might be another power Itachi gave him.

Also, I think narutos coming to an end real quick because after this war im betting naruto becomes Hokage because granny got cut in half a while back and is barley alive.

(Jan 2, 2013 01:42 AM)?Roh?An Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What do you think ? who's gonna win the War? Your Opinions should have well Fitted reason tough.

Im betting Naruto will because why would anyone write an anime for 10+ years to have it end with everyone being fucked by Obito :p

And another comment- I really hope everyone who dies in the war stays dead. I hope the war ends in some epic battle with obito being killed by naruto. I dont want it to end by Naruto convincing Obito that what he is ddoing is wrong and having Obito bring everyone back to life like Pain did. Important people need to die, you cant have a war without killing off a few main characters.

I think the most epic way the war could end tho is someone very close to Naruto dies, or someone close to him is about to die and he goes Sage of the Sixth Paths on Obito's ass. Maybe they could throw Sasuke into the mix and have him fight with Obito and then have Naruto become the Sage.

Basically I want to see Naruto become the S.T.S.P (am I allowed to come up with my own abbreviation like that? Well I guess I just did....) and open a can of whoop ass.

(I think I contributed enough for today :P)

Levi - January 2, 2013, 8:50 am

Well this cleans up the section some, even though the manga's on a break.

LIVE6336EVIL - January 2, 2013, 8:53 am

With regards to him going Sage of the six paths, I could see that happening as Pein was related to him as Pein was from the Uzumaki clan and he managed to activate the rinnegan, but that would be an interesting battle as you would have three fighters with the rinnegan activated. That would be an interesting fight to say the least.

Pain aka Nagato did not awaken the Rinnegan, it was given to him by Obito, Obito having received it from Madara.

On the topic of Itachi & Naruto. You're right in the fact that he gave it to him in Shippuden, but he also took it away as he saw Naruto wouldn't need it to stop Sasuke.

I'd like to keep this thread alive even though I hate Naruto :)

deiski - January 13, 2013, 4:57 am

In my honest opinion, Naruto WILL obtain the Rinnegan,

Itatchi gave him something in Shippuden, we still don't know what it is, could it be the Rinnegan?

Also to the person that said Tsunada (can't remember how to spell her name) : She did get injured while Naruto and Pain fought, but she is still the Hokage and she is perfectly healthy, remember, she just was running with the Raikag  to attempt To stop Naruto, but let him go.

Naruto is going to lose someone close to him, he will then show what power he has received and will kick Obito's ass.

With Kakashi, I personally think he should become a Swordsman, he has the lightning nature so it will fit well.

I personally think Sakura is a silly ninja.

The ninja Ten-Ten, I don't see the point of her in the anime, she's the worst character.

Naruto WILL win the fight, because Obito released the nine tails, 16 years ago, correct? (same mask so I assume), Naruto has lost his best friend and parents, and the will of fire, he will finish the war.

Malaki360 - January 13, 2013, 5:03 am

Looking forward to the filler ending in the anime. The manga is pretty far ahead of the anime so there shouldn't be any more fillers. Although they will still probably include them such as a few eps that just extend the war.

Well this might be a silly question but how long do you expect Naruto to continue? If this was already discussed, I'm sorry, I had no idea. For me it seems that after the war is over, the anime will end and for sure, Naruto won't be Hokage (sorry for people who believes that but I think and I'm probably sure it won't become Hokage). What do you think? What will happen in the next episodes?

Naruto won't become Hokage? If you believe he won't become Hokage well your not as big of a fan as the rest of us, it's common sense, Naruto has the reason to become strong, to fight for his parents and get Sasuke back, it's common sense, he will become the Hokage, the anime won't go on much longer after the war correct, BUT, what I believe is, I saw the manga where Sasuke and Itachi working together, since Sasuke knows the truth about Itachi now, he no longer has hate for him, no reason to be angry, but still won't come back to the leaf village because of what they did to Itachi, Naruto and Sasuke will fight, Naruto is fighting to protect the village.

Agreed, I like Naruto, not as much as some members here but still I like this anime very much (one of my favs). I think that he won't become Hokage just because this "thought" of his gives him strenght, you recall how many times he shouted that he WILL become Hokage after all, despites what others said. Well, something just popped in my mind. Hear this: He will become Hokage but he will become Hokage right before he dies? He will die after all, the anime won't just continue like (and Naruto and Sakura got together and they lived happily ever after). What do you think about that? Would you even consider this option/scenario?

Well Naruto is the best anime in my opinion, I do agree that it's not like it's going to end with Naruto and Sakura being together (which I wouldn't want to happen, if anything, it should be Hinata) but, he was an outsider as a kid, and he proved to everyone that he will become strong, and become the Hokage, don't you think he is the only one that can stop the war? Pervy Sagè (forgot how to spell his actuall name) was suppose to become the Hokage, but he gave that opportunity to Tsunadaè because he thought she was a great ninja, along with her medical Ninjutsu, but now it's Naruto's time to shine, he will defeat Obito (which the anime hasn't seen yet) and I bet Tsunadaè will step down from the roll for Naruto.

FrankX - January 13, 2013, 3:48 pm

Imo Naruto will get the Rinnegan, after this he will beat Obito's ass, after that the war will be over. Naruto WILL become hokage (that's to obvious.) Sasuke will assault the leaf for what they did to Itachi , and naruto will fight against Sasuke, where they both will die. Why do I think BOTH will die? Anyone remembers that episode where Danzo gets killed, well after this Naruto said something like: when we will battle, we both die.

This would be an epic plot to me.

If it comes to an argument between what happens in a manga and what happens in an anime then the manga is always correct (except for the very rare cases where the manga was based on the anime)

The anime follows the manga perfectly, it's just the manga is way ahead of the anime, so those that don't follow the manga are quite far behind.

Now let the discussion begin

Um, first i want to correct you, Naruto received a "power" from Itachi in the Naruto Shippuden, not the original. Remember Naruto ran into Itachi in the forest and he crammed the crow down narutos thought, that was the power. And i believe Naruto actually already used the power Itachi gave him when Naruto was fighting someone, cant remember who. Who knows, thier might be another power Itachi gave him.

Also, I think narutos coming to an end real quick because after this war im betting naruto becomes Hokage because granny got cut in half a while back and is barley alive.

Im betting Naruto will because why would anyone write an anime for 10+ years to have it end with everyone being fucked by Obito :p

And another comment- I really hope everyone who dies in the war stays dead. I hope the war ends in some epic battle with obito being killed by naruto. I dont want it to end by Naruto convincing Obito that what he is ddoing is wrong and having Obito bring everyone back to life like Pain did. Important people need to die, you cant have a war without killing off a few main characters.

I think the most epic way the war could end tho is someone very close to Naruto dies, or someone close to him is about to die and he goes Sage of the Sixth Paths on Obitos ass. Maybe they could through Saskue into the mix and have him fight with obito and then have naruto become the sage.

Basically I wana see Naruto become the S.T.S.P (am i allowed to come up with my own abbreviation like that? Well i guess i jusst did....) and open a can of whoop ass.

(I think i contributed enough for today :P)
I really hope something like this happens!

Wow it really feels like its coming to a end. I thought they would definitely have had Sasuke wanting to destroy the village so they had more story to go off.

Op?nion - April 12, 2013, 2:32 pm

I feel like chapter 626 destroyed Sasuke's character, there was such a build to a death match between Sasuke and Naruto and now it's down the drain. It also makes me think that Naruto is going to be over soon, seeing as how after they kill Madara and Obito there really isnt much conflict left besides Orochimaru which doesnt seem like much of a threat because Naruto and the Kyuubii would rape his asshole inside out..

Sorun - April 12, 2013, 3:46 pm

Naruto isnt even close to being over there has been so many dramatic twist in the story, you should know better lol. Like when everybody though that Tobi was Obito, then tobi said he was Madara then everyone completely forgot about Obito . . . couple hundred chapters later O SHIT ITS OBITO!! HOW THE FUCKK!?!?!?

For all we know Sasuke is not even good. Oh here is another good one Kabuto turned from Orochimaru's bitch into SnakeMan! that bring everybody back to life. And I'm sure we will get whole book plus movie on the sage of the six paths. not to mention . . . 2. He's become hokage, and then the story will change to the perspective of konohamaru, since he vowed to be the hokage after naruto Spoiler \(Click to View\) Sasuke saying he wants to become hokage after all he did.

My Opinion \(Click to View\) He has the experience and knowledge to back it up. He hasn't killed anybody but those who have committed war crimes against Konoha themselves.

Sasuke kills Orochimaru, one of the biggest threat of Konoha.

Sasuke kills Deidara, the one who threatened and took away Sunagakure's tailed beast.

Sasuke kills Itachi, very dangerous to Konoha as he was able to bypass its defenses easily.

Sasuke joins Akatsuki

Sasuke attempts to take Bee but utterly failed.

Sasuke disrupts the Summit.

Sasuke kills Danzo, the one who essentially escalated Nakago into Pain and are responsible for hidden war crimes himself.

Sasuke attempts to kill Karin, Naruto, Sakura, and Kakashi

Sasuke kills Original Zetsu, one of the last of Akatsuki.

Sasuke helped pacify Kabuto, very dangerous to Konoha as he was one of their spy.

The only bad things IMO is that he did leave the village, which makes you an enemy to your village by default, even though Konoha probably wouldn't do anything to Sasuke now that he's helping them in the war. Besides this, attacking Bee and the rest of team 7 is the only questionably bad acts but nothing that was permanently done (like killing Naruto would be permanent). And joining Akatsuki, that too. He's a fair candidate, but really this was just a way for Kishi to have them both fight without needing Sasuke to be evil like the fans wanted. Naruto will be Hokage I'm sure.

Spoiler Rebuttal (Click to View) While training with Orochimaru, Sasuke killed over 300 people in like 1 episode. Sasuke didn't disrupt the summit, he fought with the kages, which is a pretty big deal and I doubt the other nations would be okay with Sasuke becoming hokage.

Spoiler \(Click to View\) I hate Fillers to no end, but my idea on the newest chapter is that Naruto and the future I 'THINK' that Orochimaru only agreed to help the hokages and Sasuke so that they can kill the 10 tails then when Hashirama Senju and Madara Uchiha get each other to breaking points that Orochimaru will then go and take Madara's body.

To me this makes sense because He had always wanted an Uchiha's body because he thought they were "perfect". If he takes that body he will have the ultimate and none aging body.

Please tell me your opinions I would love to hear them.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I was not surprised to find Orochimaru missing from the main battle thus far. Surely he has something else in mind, it's really difficult trying to interpret the intentions of the characters from the manga compared to anime.

A mandatory chuckle also need to be had after the chapter this week with last weeks' in mind as well, with everybody throwing their hat into the ring about becoming Hokage. Was amusing for a while, but it's getting pretty stale.

If Orochimaru really wanted an Uchiha body, he would have taken Sasuke. Madara is miles stronger than him and I just can't see it happening.

Alright everybody is it just me or was it way to predictable that Sasuke would come back and want to become Hokage. That just didn't set right with me and my theory is Sasuke is going to get a chance at the Hokage seat by proving his self during this war hes going to do something crazy like figure out the way to take the Bijuu down or just something that is Hokage worthy. If Sasuke gets to be Hokage before Naruto all I can say is disappointment.

To be honest it's because the manga and anime have both gone to shit lately. The manga has just kept dragging on with very little story progression and just a lot of flashbacks while the anime has just been filled with filler so people lost interest. I'm sure after a few more weeks of the anime this thread should be active because the Kage v Madara, Naruto, Kakashi, Gai & Bee vs Obito + Jinchuriki and also Sasuke and Itachi vs Kabuto. So with all that action people should start being interested more. Hopefully we don't get hit with filler again though, especially during these fights.

I'm awaiting the fabled izanami from itachi and sasuke and itachi's genjutsu on each other. The manga never illustrated what happened when itachi cast tysukiomi on sasuke and sasuke used his ordinary sharingan genjutsu on itachi, aside from breaking the genjutsu kabuto put on them.

I feel like they shared some words. Tysukiomi lasts quite a bit compared to real time..

I'm really having problems finding the ambition/interest to start a new anime. I watch RWBY (roosterteeth production) at the moment as well, but those are only a few minutes long. As an addition to the naruto I also watch Naruto SD, It's so fucking funny, and I kind of like Lee in the main character (love naruto though). There are so many animes D:

I kind of wished that the Episodes would be longer/come out more often/have a bit more progress. It seems like they are stalling it a bit, but I still love it.

Definitely won't be Itachi. They sent him off in a such a beautiful way that he has to stay dead. Sort of like with Jiraiya.

His Dad is a possibility but I don't see it being him, I think it could be Izuna, Shisui or possibly The Sage of Six Paths older son, as he was the founder of the Uchiha. I don't think it will be the Sage's son though as it's a little late on in the series to be introducing new characters.

Another wild guess. Could it be Hidan? He's still alive but his body isn't together. He might be showing up for some reason and the why they're saying it's suspicious could be because Hidan still thinks he's on the Akatsuki's side but doesn't know exactly what's going on. I don't see this one actually happening though.

@Bruce - narutoget.com is good, they offer standard quality but i think they have an hd setting but im forgetting.

yeah the madara backstory is the only one I've actually swallowed without skipping just cause not much was shown with those characters. I get so fed up with fillers in naruto, I've compiled a notepad list of fillers to skip if I ever rewatch haha.

Or maybe itachi killed her/them.

If anybody here likes to write and is interested in forum RPGs then this is a great one I play on that's based on the Naruto universe. Start out as an Academy student in the village of your choosing and work your way up through the shinobi ranks. You can eventually become a Kage! Or run from your village and become a Missing-ninja, free to do as you please. You train for stats and the site even has its own unique battle system. There's plenty of dedicated writers and we're always looking for fresh new faces.

I hate how as the Naruto games went on, they took out more and more of the free roaming in it. Ultimate Ninja Storm 1 was amazing with full on free roaming, then ninja storm 2 had free roaming though it was very linear. Then Generations came out and it's all just menus and fights and recycled cutscenes from the anime. I stopped purchasing them afterwards.

TBH The original Naruto is such a classic that i find it hard to enjoy Shippuden and how serious it is.

TBH The original Naruto is such a classic that i find it hard to enjoy Shippuden and how serious it is. Unfortunately, I started playing the Ultimate Ninja Storm series after the third one was released.

I've seen my fair share of videos for each of the previous Ninja Storm games, and it would seem that each of them has aspects that the other doesn't, with the next game becoming slightly worse in a sense.

The only reason I would purchase the third one, as well as Revolution, is for the plethora of characters and battle system tweaks; However, they still fucked up pretty bad with Revolution, but it currently has the most characters to date.

I am still hesitant to buy it.

And the original Naruto is indeed a classic, but I just wish that the plot could have developed differently to lead up to Shippuden.

I don't have to read Kishi's new milking manga Naruto: New Generation that comes in Spring 2015.

It has been rumored that the creator of Naruto is going to be starting a new project. Maybe a new story with Naruto's kids, but obviously not going to be named Naruto.

Trihunter3 - November 7, 2014, 5:04 am

For the length of the anime, and the amount of content within all 700 Chapters, I believe it went well. I believe they wrapped up good and answered most of nearly any questions people had. I don't know if there is a new series out but I might actually read it.

Latest episode was a huge Gaara filler. Next episode is going to be another Hanabi Hyuga filler. I hope Naruto doesn't go on a filler binge again. But then again, perfect time to release her side story right before the movie is about to be released.

I never understood the difference either. You'd think they would take close to the same amount of time.

iMew - December 7, 2014, 3:42 am

You guys have to understand that it was released in cinemas. Until the BD release there'll only be shitty camrip versions and there are few subgroups that actually bother with those (and even subbed camrips aren't worth watching usually). You all are better off just waiting for the BD release, it's worth it.

Anyways, I recently started Naruto and I must say, I LOVE IT. It reminds me/has a feel of Dragonball when Goku was a kid.

Yes.

Naruto is a good anime, but just keep in mind that most anime will not have nearly as many accumulated episodes as the Naruto series.

It is more slower paced than most anime, so if you do decide to watch other anime in the future, then just keep in mind that most anime have around 12-50 episodes, generally; While on the other hand Naruto has around 600.

But please, don't read shit on here. Getting everything spoiled will ruin the point.

A tip: never give up on NARUTO even if it gets boring fast at the beginning. It gets better and better. Naruto is 220 or something episodes or 320 idk forgot. Naruto shippuden comes next which is another few hundred.

Each episode is 20 minutes or so if I remember correctly. Go watch it. If I were you I would no-life it 10-15 hours a day.

If you can withstand the fillers, it is an epic show.

The only bad part is the fillers and there being 10 episode long fillers in between important battles.

Like you'll hear the Itachi story like 50 times.

On other news the latest episode paced pretty well. We finally got to see Madara's six paths transformation.

So much more epicness that awaits us!

Thanks for letting me know, gotta start watching again.

Spoiler (Click to View)We finally got to see Guy fight Madara for like 30 seconds before it went filler again.

I fear we're going to be seeing like 2-3 more Guy flashbacks before we get to see the fight.

I hope to God that the most anticipated fight will be worth it to see.

We don't need anymore 20 minutes of talking, 1 minute of fighting, and 3 episodes of filler.

Ep 300-380 spoilersSpoiler (Click to View)Tobi is a jinjuriki, all the hokage are reanimated and fighting, Orochimaru is a good guy, and Sasuke wants to be hokage? Talk about a turn of events, fuck this is getting good.

Episode 424 was probably the best so far, OMG.

No fillers, no talking the whole episode, no flashbacks. The pacing was just great for once, I hope they keep it this way until the end.

Spoiler (Click to View) Finally get to see Naruto and Sasuke do their thing. Been waiting for this forever now. Those two are so fucking OP now and I am loving their new jutsu.

I can't wait for the next few episodes, shit is going to go down.

Glad to see two episodes this week. I would be seriously pissed off if I had to put up with Tenten for two weeks. Then again I wouldn't mind putting up with Tenten for another week because now next week we have to deal with Killer Bee and his shitty rap.

Cloaked. - September 4, 2015, 9:16 am

Okay, I'll bite it.

I'll finally decide to give Naruto a chance. The reason why I always avoided it so far is because everyone around watches it, some people only watch Naruto and don't watch any other anime because they say they don't like it. All they have in their heads is Naruto.

Is it really that awesome ? I'll play in some episodes later tonight and see what the whole is about.

TenTen , Killer Bee and then finally more filler starts off which will probably last 2 months.If it was only like in the manga when this dreaming shit was complete in 2 pages . nvm OnePiece is getting interesting so I can handle that.

The manga has ended. The anime is still running. The anime is expected to be finished by either the end of this year or early next year depending on how much they milk this filler.

We're at Episode 432 right now, I think it started at 426 or 427 where they started being fillers.

Jackie Chun - October 3, 2015, 10:57 am

The entire Fourth great ninja war has had more filler arcs than any anime I've ever seen. I get it, they want to give tenten some spot light, but I'm tired of these stupid fillers, the chuinen exams one had a good idea but the way they made gara seem so weak, and just the way they are doing things now is just too much of something for me to handle anymore.

And now that we have these ginjustsu fillers, I don't see any end to it. Honestly Naruto in the past year or so now has had more fillers than any other anime I've ever watched. Even if they are plot based fillers, all it does is ruin the original story and plot for me even more. And these ginjustsu fillers are giving a different perspective of our characters with different characteristics and stuff, like I understand it but I don't like it. I feel Naruto shippuden should have ended a long time ago, and since it hasn't, and since they even continued with a new series called boruto, I don't feel that naruto is anywhere near as good as it used to be all because of the later episodes and the new spinoff.
