About Us

GamersCity is a MyBB forum based around gaming. We do not have many other sections that do not correlate to gaming but a section for graphics, the general sections, groups, and the marketplace. Gaming is our sole focus though. What separates us from other forums? We put money we earn into advertising and NO personal use. We have dedicated staff and premium plugins brought to you by mybbextras and mybbresources. We have quality members and the forum is a forum of activity with very nice members and a very respectable owner who takes care of his members the best ways possible. We do not have outrageous upgrades or group purchases and when you do purchase them, they go towards money put into the forum. We also have unique awards that are easy and fun for the members to obtain. What are you waiting for? Come and join today!
