I've gave out free ebooks on how to hack hotmail accounts, and earn money playing games. This contributed to HF greatly. These users have responded with great feedbacks and that gives me a great idea of what I've contributed. Although selling ebooks are good, giving it out for free is even better. I believe I've done a good job and although its a new year I have new things for HF.

Frankly, I 've not given anything as I do n't have anything to give away. But when I am sure I'm gonna contribute to HF someday.
