His other account which I've confirmed in this post.

Tracking [uid=1269206] - <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1269206>

Deeper [uid=1320544] - <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1320544>

Daniel [uid=1112131] - <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1112131>

This user had multiple threads opened saying he was selling 3 Month XBL codes as you can see here - <https://hackforums.net/search.php?action=results&sid=5cd2694ef3c784d1a7087fcbab9d81dc>

I PM'ed him asking if he would trade my Blackshades NET license for a 3 Month Code and he agree'd so I added him on Skype.

Here is our Skype Convo. I started deleting some of his messages after the whole chat which I didn't know he could do. But I took pictures before he could delete them all, so there is more than enough proof here.

Then he signed off... I went to PM him back here on HF and I get this...

Luckily I will be able to recover my Blackshades License so I lost nothing. His dumb ass probably doesn't know that though. Anyways stay away from this user.

EDIT: Now he's looking up how to set up Blackshades...

And he seen this thread and didn't reply...

=====

Just found out he is a multi-accounter also. If you check in the picture he says he skype is b.coxy.1997. Well a simple HF search on that and I got this.

Deeper [uid=1320544] - <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1320544>

I'm sure he has more accounts too...

=====

So I got my blackshades account back, logged in and seen what he changed the email to:

When someone scams you, you would stalk them as much if not even more. But I guess you would never know that feeling since you are too busy scamming yourself. Nice quick "Ignore". Glad OP got his account back without any loss.

Scammer gets caught out as a multiaccounter and then proceeds to claim the user who got scammer, a stalker. Lol
