Thread: Got My Orders

MuffinTopMan - January 13, 2013, 5:42 pm

I got my orders from the USMC. I am a 0651A (Data network specialist). I can't wait to go and train for this. I will be going to MCT at Pendleton for a month then to 29 Palms (which is not good I have heard) for 3 1/2-4 months. I will be coming out with an equivalent to a 2 year Cisco degree for free ya.

Thanks for serving

Have fun and enjoy it while it lasts

I have so much respect for people who join any service in the US

Thanks again pal !

Congrats bro. Hack them damn damn terrorists.

Hopefully you'll be in Twentynine Palms before summer hits. I live about an hour away. That would suck if you were there in July and August.

I have a month before I go there then I will have at least 3 1/2 months of training at Twentynine Palms before I leave there. I will get a little of the heat.?
