I have mixed combo lists which I tend to prefer since they're versatile. You can use the same combo list for Steam, adf.ly, Brazzers and so on. Unfortunately, I don't have any email:password lists at the moment.

I can do that on request if you tell me the requested theme of the list.

What is the purpose of using a combo list? I understand that it's for cracking accounts, but why not just try millions of passwords on 1 account? Are combo lists more for trying to randomly crack a large amount of accounts rather than a specific one? Thanks in advance for any replies.

I remove duplicates and most special characters from the lists. The cracking kit consists of Sentry MBA and 50+ configurations, including Steam plus a proxy list.

posting for future reference. I may want to buy when I get money.

How many accounts do you think I'd get out of a 150k combo list from you?

I'm talking STEAM accounts, working not 0 games etc..

At least 1.5K working with games and no Steam guard, maybe more. Check the picture in the OP for a rough estimate.

So far I'm 16K words in and List one of 70K has found me approx 108 accounts. I would say 100-95 of which have a paid game or so.

I'm interested in more combos and I'd like to buy 600k-1M combo's if you'll do me a deal :D

Owl City - February 18, 2013, 12:52 pm

Thanks for the overwhelming positive feedback. Sydney, I can give you 2M for $90, is that okay? I've also replied to your proxy PM. XMarkX, I can give you a discount for buying in bulk. I can give you 600K for $35 and 1M for $45.

XMarkX - February 18, 2013, 10:22 pm

Can I just say, this needs a huge vouch. I haven't got my 1M list from Owl yet but the 100K list he gave me was such high quality it's unreal!

Thanks a ton bro!

You cant always expect to get amazing hits from such small lists. Buying combolists is always gamble, which is why getting good combos is a long process of trial and error.
