Frawshy - January 21, 2013, 2:20 pm

Hello, Juicy Booty and I need a userbar, banner, and a forum icon for our upcoming group The Angels. Logic is switching to The Angels.

Userbar: $30
Banner: $10
Forum Icon: $5

Feel free to make it either, "The Angels or Angels".
Here's the HF layout for the userbar:

I will work on this on after this intro is done rendering, wait for me.

Juicy - January 21, 2013, 2:43 pm

I am very excited for this group.

We will not be picking one that is done the first try unless it is absolutely amazing.

If we like your idea, we will probably have you work on the userbar till it is perfected.

Anyone agree? :D

I'm assuming you are looking for the Angels, as in Heaven and such? Just making sure you aren't referencing a band or something ;)

I never even knew that the Propitious userbar had used the same wings... Either why I am not ripping the image. Just because I went and googled "Wings" does not mean I ripped it. As far as I know Propitious never copyrighted the use of the wings. If you can find proof that they have please tell me and I will remove them from the image. Also if someone puts a picture of a tree in a painting would that be considered ripping natures design?

Also these images/pdf files can all be found by a simple search, so it doesn't necessarily mean he ripped anyone's work.

The blue 'A' looks cool, but I think it's a bit too small. Furthermore I think 'The Angels' sounds a lot better.

This is by far the best one ive seen out there. If this doesn't get chosen then there must be something wrong with you.

Good luck everybody! ?

This was really cool to be a part of!

Here was my submission, it doesn't live up to some of the professional work around here, but it was my first time making a userbar, and I liked how it turned out.

Userbar, banner, and forum icon were created by +Awesome.
Thanks everyone for trying.
I will have him post the chosen graphics, then I will close the thread.

So can you guys post the winning userbar & icon or what? :)

I believe Sandshrew should post his picks on his own. (:

Sandshrew isn't the only owner of this group though.

Juicy Booty paid for this group as well, so it would be their pick as its a partnership.

Also I'm confused.

Didn't y'all decide on a userbar already?
(jw cos ppl keep asking)

Ah yes, they decided mine on their own in the group chat.

This is the UB finalized:

I personally wasn't a fan of that one very much.

But Sandshrew hasn't really let me have a say. :/

Have a say? :s

You're co-owner. You paid for this group as well.

So "have a say" shouldn't ever be an issue, as this group is possible cos you helped fund it as well.

Idk. Cody & I share responsibilities, we consult w/one another before making any decisions & we certainly never act like one is hierarchy than the other.

Perhaps a owners meeting is in order before y'all even think about opening so there's no discord.

If there's any issues they should get sorted before brining ppl into them as they will be obvious & make for a terrible feeling w/in the group. =/

Have a say...

I let you have a say. I didn't like your choice, you didn't like mine.

We agreed to let others vote, we did, Awesome's won.

We can have a whole HF wide vote, if you really want.

Juicy - January 29, 2013, 7:19 am

I would love to have a whole vote.

In illuminati everyone voted the one I liked, can we put up a vote?

I am not in Illuminati, there vote doesn't count. We agreed to have Empire and 143 vote, those were the terms. Although, I will allow the entire community to vote upon the userbars. You may have the designer that you like edit anything you want on your userbar, then we will do a vote.

SIM-888979 - January 29, 2013, 7:25 am

Oh god, I can tell this group won't succeed if you guys are not working together and are constantly fighting. I hope you guys just find a mutual choice and settle it.

Lets do a community vote.

If you 2 have opposing opinions on your design then, a community vote will be your best option.

That way there's no, "You ignored my input" sorta thing happening.

Y'all will get to where you need to be as co-owners, the key is to work together as a pair.

If you can't get along or argue a lot you may as well split up.

(lol now I've made it sound like a coupling, my bad)

This is not a fight nor an argument.

This is the only thing we've even come close to fighting on.

Lol ppl always think things are a fight, talking helps to work thnigs out, it's good & healthy.

I'll vote when your poll is up as I would love to see y'all up & running.

I'm excited & I wish y'all the best!

Actually read a little before trying to put someone down.

The owners have reopened this & are going to have a community vote.

They however didn't not specify whether or not new entries are allowed so that's still open as far as ppl can tell.
