Welcome to my first upgrade contest. Today I'm giving a lucky person the chance to get their account upgraded to either L33t or Ub3r. I've upgraded a person before but that wasn't done like this. So, if you're interested. Read on.

About The Competition:

The competition is available to anyone who doesn't brake any of the rules.

The competition shall finish a week today (30th).

You can also nominate others if you wish.

Rules:

Here are the rules for this contest, if you brake even a single one, you're not eligible. You must have been a member for at least a month.

You need to have at least 10 positive reputation.

You need at least 150 posts.

Your warning level must be under 40%.

You can only upgrade one tier. So normal to L33t, L33t to Ub3r.

If applying for Ub3r, you must have been accepted.

You may not edit/delete your post once made.

Applications:

Application to get yourself upgraded:

Code [color=#00BFFF]Username[/color]:

Tell me a bit about yourself (Between one and three paragraphs): I'm a baseball player, I've lived in Australia all my life. I have some mental disabilities such as ADHD, aspegous, depression and mild OCD (which comes from having aspegous). I have had 2 major knee operations in the past 6 months which put my out of sport for 6 months which killed me as I love playing sport. I am currently learning how to SE and SQLi. I have been webmaster for a couple of baseball clubs, just doing it to get baseball more known in Australia. I have played for my state against other state.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?: I don't really have a reason why I deserve this upgrade, as I haven't given anything to the community as of yet, but I have a couple of things I will be doing if I get it, which is making a couple of tuts from my knowledge, doing giveaways often.

What have you done for this community? (Links would be nice.): I haven't done anything for this community as of yet, apart from a helping a couple of people on there threads. Like I mentioned, I'll soon be posting tutorials and hosting giveaways. Thanks mate.

Tell me a bit about yourself (Between one and three paragraphs):Well i was born in Bulgaria, but like 8 months ago me and my familly moved to Germany so how i found the site was actually very lucky ;p. A friend of mine told me about darkcomet so i searched it in google and it got me here.Now i wanna learn coding and much more :)

Why do you deserve this upgrade?:Well I'm a HF member for quite a long time and I'm being as much as HQ during the whole time.I am doing a lot of giveaways when I got anything to offer and I'm helping every single member that i can.Being a I337 would help me a lot there are many things that offer.First off it will gain me more trust there are lots of I337s which want me to go first in some exchanges or something and they scam you after that because you practically can't do nothing about it.Another thing is the big PM box, now that would help me quite a lot i got a lot of messages every day and it's annoying if I open a Post and PM me thread i can't answer every single person.I am doing and will be doing a lot of giveaways i actually got a very huge Ebooks pack that i want to give, but i can't find a host that offers uploading for bigger than 1GB files.Well i guess that's kind of enough if you got anything to ask let me know.

Tell me a bit about yourself (Between one and three paragraphs): I am 16 years old boy from Romania. I joined this website in Dec 2012 in looking for entertainment and especially for hacking tutorials. Since I joined this website I learned e-whoring and RAT-ing (I love blackhat activities lol)

Why do you deserve this upgrade?: I think I deserve Ub3r because I am a member with High Quality in the e-whoring section. I try to share my knowledge as much as possible, I cannot stress that enough. I may help you with social related problems, just PM me. I e-whore, if you need help with that I can give you help also. I may not be a very respected member but I think you should go for me.

What do you wish to upgrade too?:l33t

Tell me a bit about yourself (Between one and three paragraphs):Uhm, where do i start..? I've been registered on this forum since 2011 but just started to become active, or for a few months ago. I like hanging around on this forum and it is a very helpfull forum if you want to start coding/hacking. I've just started to code in VB and I am doing everything to improve. Im an outgoing guy who is always positive and happy ?

Im trying to become even more active on this forum as I do not post alot in threads but im always online, or not always but I try to be as much as possible. Im also trying to create giveaways and such in the future cause I like to give away something to the community like every one else is doing, including you.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?: I think I deserve this cause im very active to this forum. And if I get this im going to start doing giveaways like you are doing. But I havent done so much to this community, yet. Thats why i dont have any good reasons to be upgraded but i would love to start giving out some "love" to this community. That's my reason why i deserve to be upgraded.

What have you done for this community? (Links would be nice.):I've been giving out a few spotify premium codes via PM's.

Other than that i havent been doing a lot to this community, but im going to start doing giveaways etc soon.

Awesome giveaway though, thanks for doing this ?

I am a friendly and social guy. My first goal on this forum is helping all members I can.
Currently I'm going to school so I have no job, really no time for it because I want good grades, so on my free time I'm spending alot of time here.
Why do you deserve this upgrade?:
I always help all members whenever I can. If someone has a problem he/she can always come to me and ask me questions about it. I've also done alot for this community and being upgraded by a member like you would mean alot to me!

Tell me a bit about yourself (Between one and three paragraphs): Where to start... Well for starters when I joined this site, I honestly though that echo %random% with loop was hacking... No joke. But after a while I learned RAtIng (not fond of anymore), keylogging (nice side project), tons of programming from C++ to java, and I even made a small fortune (which wound up going negative because of chargebacks, but it was my fault). I am constantly helping new members, only being a noob to this forum when I have to be :P I try to adapt to others learning styles to help teach them the most effective way possible. I've always contributed, they may not be on site and in PMs or skype or TV/join.me but in my eyes, a true hero does not need to be recognized, If that makes any sense to you? I'll stop here and if you want to ask anything, my PM box is always clean!

Why do you deserve this upgrade?: I think I have been on this site for a sufficient amount of time and the only reason I haven't bought it myself was because paypal put me so far in the negative I just stopped dealing with PP overall. I haven't seen any other method of payment so I just go contest to contest in hopes of winning.

-I am helping THIS person make scripts for youlikehits macro. Still making them.

-I've rarely been rude, but the minuscule amount of times I have, he/she deserved it.

-Like I stated before, a true hero does not need to be recognized

(bolded to help find them better, I'm partially colorblind so it at least helped me.)

Why should you be upgraded and what will you do as UBER:

- Im mature and never have scammed anyone and never plan to do so.
- I help out every user I can and get 10+ skype freind requests daily who seek my help.
- I am a active member who spends alot of his time on HF
- When I get L33T I will be able to give Rep to alot of users who I think are HQ.
- I will be able to post some of my more private TuTs in the private sections,
- I have 101 Positive rep and No Negative Rep
- I do giveaways quite often
- I have never broke any HF rules
- I do alot of free crypts and setups for rats for beginners
