Thread: [::\[TuT\]How to get a free .com domain\[TuT\]::](#)

Hi-Tech E - January 30, 2013, 1:15 pm

Hello HF!

I'm giving You my newest tutorial on how to get a free .com or other domain. It takes about 30 minutes to get the site working, which I consider as very fast.

Feel free to comment and use this wisely!

Tbh. I did not have to provide anything. After getting 10 likes I just got my domain for free.

After getting 10 likes You get a link which takes You to the site registrator.

This is the sickest thing I've seen. I had same problem, but after having like 5 visible likes, it said that I got 12 already which was enough. Just make sure that ppl like Your project and everything will be fine.

Best Regards,
Z.
