Thread: Zealotry's Basic eWhoring Guide - Detailed Guide - Site List Included!

Zealotry - January 31, 2013, 12:12 am

Today, I'm going to provide my method of eWhoring. Please read this thoroughly before asking questions!

Step One - Setup and Talking

This is your most important step. Open up a new text document in Notepad, and make a list of information about your whore. This should include, but not be limited to:

Name / DOB

Location (down to the ZIP/Postal code. Google can help with this)

What pack you'll be using (There's tons of them in this section.).

Now, going to go in a bit more detail about that.

Name: Make it something attractive. For example, Brittney or Melissa are both good names. Don't pretend you're Ashkl'Avar Hammar Bakkushi. That's a fucking ugly name, and is a lot to type, lol. Also, make her name match her face (A Melissa should look like a Melissa). Last names that are good: Woods, Greene, etc. Simple, but not common like Smith, unless she looks like she'd be named that.

Age / DOB: 19 is a good age. It allows you to have reasonable excuses to why you need money (school, etc.)

Location: For example, a quick google search gave me:

Niagra Falls, Ontario, Canada L2E 1R4

Make shit reasonable. UK and Canada are good places.

Pack: One that has a LOT of pics with a large variety. If you can get one of her holding a piece of paper to photoshop, +1 good pack.

Also, make Facebooks and such, to look more realistic, but only give it if they ask. Make new emails and everything.

Step Two - Sites

Your site should have many users. View the spoiler at the bottom of this thread for a list of a few. Say in the chat "19/f/canada looking for hot rich guys ;) skype: usernamehere" or something along those lines. When they add, make a fucking sob story and tell them you'll give them pics if they can please help, even just a little bit. If they say I'll fap for you on cam, just let them. Mute your mic and look away, though you may have to keep them on. It's worth the money, though. Right?

... Right?

If they act ridiculous (you'll get a lot of "ILL GIVE U WUN MILIN DOLURS IF U GIMME ALL U PICS AT ONCE LUL"), block them. Not worth it. They get TWO previews MAX (Send better ones).

Remember, you ARE that girl, you can't let them even THINK that you're not who you say you are.

Remember, these guys are typically fucktards. Arguing with them is pointless and a waste of time and energy.

Step Three - Sale

You'll know good prices, it varies with the site you use. If they buy more, they get a bigger discount (Usually every $20 spent, up to $100). I let them offer their price and work with it. Send the pics, maybe say "bye babe i luv u <3 ty soo much ;p" and go on. Send the money to your main account ASAP.

Grats, you've eWhored. What did you expect me to say?

It's more practice than time. Once you get good, it's easy cash flow. Good to know you've made some money, though! ?

its an awesome guide! Unfortunately I couldnt make any money today. They're all asking for a longer preview orso which actually means 'Oh bby please show me a preview of 2 minutes and I'll cum and scam the hack out of you!'. Kinda frustrating :(
