Amount: $620

Reason: He requested a loan to help pay for The Angels from Hexitidal. I was under the impression my loan to him would cover the remainder of the balance for the group ($3,750), however, he used my $550 (Owes $620 since he offered interest) and his partner's $450 to pay the $1,000 down payment on Logic. He still owes Hex $2,750 by March 1st for the group.

[1/19/2013 9:42:06 PM] Sandshrew: When would you want the repayment by? I have a method that I'm going to start tomorrow, then a program being coded, should be done by Tuesday.

[1/19/2013 9:42:56 PM] Tibit: When do you think you'd be able to repay?

[1/19/2013 9:43:11 PM] Sandshrew: I'd want an official date from you first.

[1/19/2013 9:45:33 PM] Tibit: I don't know what kind of timeline you're looking at so I have no clue, for sure no longer than a month. If you can do it within 1-2 weeks then I wouldn't need to talk to Dan about it as we don't have any new expenses that I know of and would still have enough for all our servers.

[1/19/2013 9:46:03 PM] Sandshrew: 2 weeks would be great, I could deffinitelt repay that.

[1/19/2013 9:46:44 PM] Sandshrew: You'd still take out your 10%, then when I got to a stable amount to pay off all of my stuff and repay you, of pay you. Likely it wouldn't be more than a week for the repayment.

[1/19/2013 9:49:51 PM] Tibit: So what's the plan for it? Keep holding PokeBoot Payments till $550 is raised then keep that and the rest to you? Or something else? idk what you're saying D:

[1/19/2013 9:51:24 PM] Sandshrew: You keep holding payments, send them to me regularly... after a week, I'll give you my financial statement if I have everything paid off, etc and am financially stable to send repay you your loan. How about a 15% overall? So you loan me $560, you'll get $60. So a bit more than 15%. It'll be paid within 2 weeks.

[1/19/2013 9:54:04 PM] Sandshrew: Sound good?
[1/19/2013 9:55:23 PM] Tibit: So am I sending you $560 or $500? D:
[1/19/2013 9:57:01 PM] Sandshrew: $560, is that okay still?
[1/19/2013 9:58:04 PM] Tibit: Yes, so how much would be paid to me and you're saying in 1 week or within 2 weeks?
[1/19/2013 9:58:58 PM] Sandshrew: $620 back to you total for the loan. Within 2 weeks for sure, chance for it to be in 1 week.
[1/19/2013 10:07:29 PM] Tibit: Sent
[1/19/2013 10:11:43 PM] Sandshrew: Thanks soo much, Dylan. I'm so happy to be a new group owner! :)
[1/19/2013 10:12:35 PM] Tibit: Now write up the paragraph about your plans for the group, we'll do it in this news and the next news will be about your group actually being named etc D:
[1/19/2013 10:15:42 PM] Sandshrew: So what do you mean about the plans?
[1/19/2013 10:16:24 PM] Tibit: Just something where I'm going to say: Logic Sold - etc etc etc, the new owners, Sandshrew and x plan on doing x with the group. etc
[1/19/2013 10:17:33 PM] Sandshrew: Okay, I'll have it done by 35 after.

His PayPal has been limited and he only has ~$230 in it last night.

PokeBoot: Many will say why would he not pay up from the profits from his booter, well I'm his PayPal Holder for it and there is no way he can afford these things through his booter. In the last week of sales he has only made $88.56, minus the 10% fee I charge for holding his payments and the 10+ disputes he has had this week alone.

His Group Is Not Paid For: He still hasn't paid for the group. Here is Hex's message on skype:

Conclusion: I will keep this thread up until I've been repaid in full. He said that would be around Monday, now he says Tuesday, I don't know what to believe. He's had a good heart in the past, but he's covered up so much to his own partners about how much of the group was paid off and tried to sweep it all under the rug so this will hopefully force him to pay off his debts. I think he took on more than he could handle, I told him I don't like lending money because not many people end up paying back on time, he knew the deadline and I've warned him multiple times this week. I will close this once fully repaid.

More: Another thing, Juicy Booty paid $1,200 LR for co-leader in The Angels, where did that money go? Only $1,000 of The Angels is paid off, $550 of it was from me. The rest from Sandshrew's partner.

(Feb 2, 2013 03:16 PM)Juicy Booty Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Okay, I just want to tell you guys that I had no part in this.

I am very disappointed as well.

I put up over 1k for this group, and I was under the impression that it was fully paid off.

Turns out I have paid more than Sandshrew has, and he officially owns the group.

I am very mad right now. I thought the group was paid off.

TL;DR:

So this is how it's gone so far:

Saturday, Feb 2nd

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Sandshrew sends that $$450 + $550 = $1,000$ to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake Info PayPal.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

Sandshrew is proven to have a multiple account know as xFrawshi.

Sandshrew owes $120 to contest winners he didn't pay out yet.

Sandshrew lied to his partner about sales for PokeBoot.

Says he's too busy to call me, will comment tonight or tomorrow when he feels like it.

Says he'll announce his plan tomorrow. Refuses to comment on many of the questions at the moment.

Lied to all members involved.

The multi account has the same videos, AIM's, Skype, Emails, etc as his real account.

Juicy Booty requested a full repayment from Sandshrew, totaling: $1,250

In total he owes over $5,365 USD.

Sandshrew claims the multi account is his "cousin", admits to proxy selling for a non-upgraded account, which is against the rules.

Sandshrew agrees to pay Juicy Booty $1,250 if he isn't satisfied with Sandshrew's explanation. He said he will pay me back 'possibly' by tomorrow.

He asked members of his group to code him a program to sell to make money.

He did not describe his plan to pay any of us back.

He said he will post about it tomorrow.

Sunday, Feb 3rd

He said his statement will be posted by 1pm Central Standard time on Sunday.

He posted his statement, it shows no details and adds more excuses, it's torn apart by everyone involved.

I've chargedback my payments to him due to him not being able to provide a plan in depth stating how he will actually pay off any of the debts.

Waiting his next statement and his refund of all disputes.

Edit Again: Sandshrew also has multiple accounts:

I can vouch for this Deal Dispute. I trust Sandshrew, but I don't want this to becoming something it doesn't have to.

The faster this can be resolved the better for the HackForums community as a whole. He is still in debt with me, but like it has previously be stated, he has until March 1st to pay this debt.

I wish you both the best of luck sorting you issue out, I hope it doesn't come to the point where it will affect me.

I just hope you can resolve it and don't have to borrow the money from someone else. I will close this thread once the repayment has been made.

I do believe in Sandshrew. He's been a really good friend for me and has always helped me out. I am sure he'll get the funds soon when he is required to. He runs a booter and makes large profits off it, besides he has clearly shown his capability to make large amounts of money through his immense amounts of donations to Hack Forums.

Until it's February the fifth, or until him and Tibit sort things out I think the matter should be left alone. This is just my opinion.

Good luck to both sides, I really hope it is sorted out. :)

Actually, if you read the first post, his booter isn't making much. It made $88 in the last week. 10% of which I keep for my fee for holding his PayPal money.

You don't know what's going on, you haven't been talking to both sides and you keep going back to flaming because you don't have any valid arguments to support what you're saying. Agreed. I do believe he'll repay if he can when he can. However, as it looks extremely unlikely that it will happen within the next week at least, he needs to describe his plan to me and give me details instead of just saying: "I have a plan, don't worry"

You don't go up to an investor and say 'I have a million dollar idea, give me $50,000 and I'll make magic happen.

So far it looked extremely unlikely that I'll be paid within a week even, unless someone loans him money to do so. If he could be straight with me and tell me his plan in detail, I can reevaluate the situation.

I was told by Sandshrew he did/would pay the other $100.

Tibit - February 2, 2013, 4:33 pm

So this is how it's gone so far:

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Sandshrew sends that $450 + $550 = $1,000 to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake

Info PayPal.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

So, I believe that's the timeline at the moment.

This is just a warning thread and bringing out all of sandshrew's secrets on the group as he's told different stories to all those involved and left out a lot. It looks highly unlikely that he will be able to pay up so this is to show him he needs to make it a priority instead of a secondary concern.

After Omni closed that thread I decided to post this thread as well. On the 5th I will chargeback my payments to him if he is unable to pay. I'm waiting for him to free up 5 minutes in his evening to make a phone call to discuss this since he has been so busy...

Indeed, we should keep opinions like "I feel sorry for tibit,juicy,ect" to ourselves and there is no point in saying that right now. As the event is still happening and you don't know whether he won't be able to pay or if he will.

We should instead wish the best of luck to Sandshrew so that he can hopefully gather the money and pay his debts.

At a loss:

Juicy Booter - 1K
Phenomenal - 450
Tibit - 550
Hexicidal - 2,750

At a gain:

Sandshrew - TA

Here is the list:

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Sandshrew sends that $$450 + $550 = $1,000$ to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake Info PayPal.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

Juicy paid me. If Hex gets the group back then I will work something out with him. Of the money he paid me only $500 was for the group (on my end). The rest was for other stuff Sandshrew owed me money for. At the same time from Juicy's perspective 100% of the money was for the group. Sandshrew stop acting like you are going to pay everything back on time and that it is all okay.

Your in debt thousands of dollars, across multiple people. You took out a huge loan to pay off a loan, then got a loan for an additional $500, paid $1000 down, yet still owe like 2-3K (I don't remember).

This is honestly one of the worst ordeals I have seen on here in a long time. I wouldn't be surprised at ALL if sandshrew got the group taken.

Honestly I don't understand why you posted this scam report. It seems a bit premature to be posting a scam report if he has until March 1st. Plus, there definitely wasn't a need to bring this to the public's attention because that is just going to cause more issues.

Just my two cents, good luck getting this resolved. I hope you'll be able to work something out.

That account hasn't been accessed in like... almost 7 months. Also, I'd just like to point out it takes 250$ to change the group from what it was "Logic" to what it is currently "The Angels". He also paid top dollar for graphics which is easily another 45$. Hopefully this clears up where SOME of the other money went.

I however do not have a link to Omni telling how much it is to change a group, but in this thread Castle Bravo mentions its 250$.

I was unaware I was paying your debt to Phenomenal for your Pokeboot products.

You told me he wanted $1.5k for leadership, and you worked it down to $1.1k.

You never said he only wanted $500 for leadership, but I was paying your debt.

Tibit - February 2, 2013, 8:25 pm

So this is how it's gone so far:

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Sandshrew sends that $450 + $550 = $1,000 to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake Info PayPal.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

Sandshrew is proven to have a multiple account know as xFrawshi.

Sandshrew owes $120 to contest winners he didn't pay out yet.

Multi Account Story:

During the summer, my cousin comes to my house. He made an HF said that he could make easy money here with a YT shop. He then told me to continue it if I wanted to, he was heading to college. I couldn't make a Paypal and didn't want to use my real info for skype, etc. I didn't want to add people onto my personal skype at that time.

Payment Story:

SoulZeh: Phenomenal's paypal account was limited two days after he paid you.

Juicy Booty: I told you what he wanted on Skype, I can pull up the logs tomorrow.

Tibit: If you really want to I'll try my best to pay you back tomorrow.

Hex: I'll have it by March 1st, I have a plan.

Plan: I have methods for online money making, I don't make everything from my booter. This would get me quite a bit.

I have a booter, once I get it stickied it'll bring in a fair amount. I'm also a group owner, so I can throw that into boosting my sales, but I can't with this drama happening. Then I have other programs being created by people for me to sell on here.

I have a booter, once I get it stickied it'll bring in a fair amount. I'm also a group owner, so I can throw that into boosting my sales, but I can't with this drama happening. Then I have other programs being created by people for me to sell on here.

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Sandshrew sends that $$450 + $550 = $1,000$ to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake Info PayPal.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

Sandshrew is proven to have a multiple account know as xFrawshi.

Sandshrew owes $120 to contest winners he didn't pay out yet.

Sandshrew lied to his partner about sales for PokeBoot.

Says he's too busy to call me, will comment tonight or tomorrow when he feels like it.

Says he'll announce his plan tomorrow. Refuses to comment on many of the questions at the moment.

Lied to all members involved.

The multi account has the same videos, AIM's, Skype, Emails, etc as his real account.

Juicy Booty requested a full repayment from Sandshrew, totaling: $1,250

So JB payed Sandshrew's debt for someone, but he went into more debt in asking for money from Tibit. However he is also needing to pay Hex for the group.

The Way he was posting around HF and on his group threads Etc,I thought he is really a Mature 20+ aged HQ Person.But i guess i was wrong.

Mohatu - February 3, 2013, 8:04 am

I haven't posted here yet, but I have read all 425 comments. This is extremely unfortunate. Although I WANT to believe Sandie will pay it all back and life will be full of happiness and flowers, I'm slowly but surely losing hope in that happening.

Unnoticed - February 3, 2013, 8:09 am

This is shit. If you are buying a group, get all the money and pay upfront for crying out loud.

DaFreak - February 3, 2013, 8:18 am

I wish best of luck to Sandshrew for getting the money back and paying his debt.

Good luck tibit and all others involved.

Apathy - February 3, 2013, 8:39 am

I doubt he will be able to pay this off quickly. However, there are clearly two different due dates. Whether or not OP was going with one date over the other, there should have been one agreed upon due date. This is partially a problem of communication between two parties. That is not to say that I believe Sandshrew will pay on time, because I don't think that is the case. He has too much debt, and he seemingly doesn't have any way to pay for it. This is why you should have someone sign a promissory note and possibly demand collateral from them, if possible.

However, this scam report is too early. There were two agreed upon dates, so you should default to the latter, not the most recent.

But yes, Sandshrew lied about things in order to quickly obtain this group, and he probably thought "I will be able to handle it."

This is the maturity level you see often on HF. You have kids who are conditioned to be dependent on their parents. So when shit hits the fan, they don't know how to handle it. They don't think these problems out beforehand, because mommy and daddy usually do that for them.

And people should stop saying, "He's such a nice guy." Don't let someone's demeanor or attitude fool you. If you lie to obtain thousands of dollars, and you are unsure how you are going to pay it back, that is not nice in anyway. That is very mean and selfish. If he doesn't pay, others will have to suffer at his expense. Let his actions be the judge of his character. We will see.

Here is the latest update:
Saturday, Feb 2nd

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Sandshrew sends that $$450 + $550 = $1,000$ to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake Info PayPal.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

Sandshrew is proven to have a multiple account know as xFrawshi.

Sandshrew owes $120 to contest winners he didn't pay out yet.

Sandshrew lied to his partner about sales for PokeBoot.

Says he's too busy to call me, will comment tonight or tomorrow when he feels like it.

Says he'll announce his plan tomorrow. Refuses to comment on many of the questions at the moment.

Lied to all members involved.

The multi account has the same videos, AIM's, Skype, Emails, etc as his real account.

Juicy Booty requested a full repayment from Sandshrew, totaling: $1,250

In total he owes over $5,365 USD.

Sandshrew claims the multi account is his "cousin", admits to proxy selling for a non-upgraded account, which is against the rules.

Sandshrew agrees to pay Juicy Booty $1,250 if he isn't satisfied with Sandshrew's explanation. He said he will pay me back 'possibly' by tomorrow.

He asked members of his group to code him a program to sell to make money.

He did not describe his plan to pay any of us back.

He said he will post about it tomorrow.

Frawshy - February 3, 2013, 9:59 am

I posted with everything that Tibit had in a list.

I'd rather answer direct questions, I don't want to write a statement that people won't believe.

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

I didn't ever owe him that. He wanted $500 to be bought out of the group.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

I never told JB the group was paid off. And the reason why I made him pay $1.2K is because I wasn't just going to let someone co-own a group for $500. Wasn't happening like that.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Yup.

Sandshrew sends that $450 + $550 = $1,000 to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Yup.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake Info PayPal.

I had $290 in that and $80 in LR. I had $350 coming in for a private booter setup, but then my PayPal got limited so I told the buyer to hold off.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

This will be paid off by then.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

Why should I have? I had everything worked out.

Sandshrew is proven to have a multiple account know as xFrawshi.

Nope, my cousin comes down to my house in the summer. He showed me HF, and before he left off to college he gave me his YouTube bot and YouTube website account for views, subs, etc.

Sandshrew owes $120 to contest winners he didn't pay out yet.

$100* We did send Soul eh $100, but Phenomenal's PayPal got limited a day or two after. Therefore, SoulZeh's payment for $100 went on hold.

Sandshrew lied to his partner about sales for PokeBoot.

I didn't have time.

Yup, I didn't want to use my personal Skype, and email. I don't ever go on AIM, I hate AIM. That was just to use for anyone who wanted to talk to me on AIM.

Juicy Booty requested a full repayment from Sandshrew, totaling: $1,250

Fine by me, it'll be paid off.

In total he owes over $5,365 USD.

No.

Sandshrew claims the multi account is his "cousin", admits to proxy selling for a non-upgraded account, which is against the rules.

When did I proxy sell? Because I used his bot and YouTube website view/sub account?

Sandshrew agrees to pay Juicy Booty $1,250 if he isn't satisfied with Sandshrew's explanation.

Kay.

He said he will pay me back 'possibly' by tomorrow.

Yes.

He asked members of his group to code him a program to sell to make money.

Yes, this was a part of my plan the whole time.

He did not describe his plan to pay any of us back.

I am now.

He said he will post about it tomorrow.

Sunday, Feb 3rd

He said his statement will be posted by 1pm Central Standard time on Sunday.

Okay, my plan was....

So, with me owning a group, it would obviously boost sales for everything that I was selling on this forum. So lets say it boosts my sales by 30%, that's quite a bit.

I have money making methods that I can do if I ever needed to.

I was going to have people in the group and others code me programs to sell, I would pay them for coding it and whatnot of course.

I was easily going to pay off Hex the $2,750 by March 1st. I was going to pay you that $620 on the 5th, I thought we were going by the onsite date, not Skype. The $100 to SoulZeh was going to be paid as soon as we could.

Feel free to ask any questions and I will answer them in great detail.

To me this seems like a lot of 'might happens'. Just because your a group owner doesn't mean your products are going to sell by what you think they are but they might. If no one likes the product what was the plan? What happens if you don't get the required money by the date now that this thread is open because I'm sure some people will think twice about dealing now.

what's your comment to that?

Asbive stated, my cousin comes down during the summer. When he left, I just used his stuff, I didn't want to use my personal Skype. And I don't even use his AIM.

I am still very on edge about this.

I have been lied to too many times.

I was under the impression it was paid off, and you never said otherwise. You made it seem like it was for sure.

You told me Phenomenal wanted $1.5k for leadership. I was like... Well a little steep. Then you magically worked it down to $1.2, so I had to jump in on the deal. Little did I know he only wanted $500, but you had a debt to pay.

So, with me owning a group, it would obviously boost sales for everything that I was selling on this forum. So lets say it boosts my sales by 30%, that's quite a bit.

So, you plan to pay people back on assumed income? By 30%? Did you actually calculate that with math, or is that just simply a "feeling" you had?

How could you assume after only owning a group for barely a week would immediately boost your sales? What if your sales aren't boosted? There are other factors that effect sales, and Tibit claims some factors have made your sales decrease.

Quote:I have money making methods that I can do if I ever needed to.

Would you say that a large number of "methods" are unreliable? Would you also admit that "methods" usually only last for a certain amount of time before they become saturated or patched? Would patches be able to cover thousands of dollars in a short time span?

Quote:I was going to have people in the group and others code me programs to sell, I would pay them for coding it and whatnot of course.

Were people coding for you something you also assumed? Did you actually have definitive people who said they would do it, or did you just assume that you could use someone's labor simply by having a group?

Wouldn't you also say it is true that coding of software and actually selling it can be a timely process, which would make it difficult to make payments so quick?

Also, Tibit has suggested your projected sales were very off. So, what makes you confident that future sales on software isn't even in the development process would be sufficient to pay off your debts?

Here is the updated timeline of events:

Saturday, Feb 2nd

Sandshrew owed Pheno $1,100 LR.

Sandshrew gets JB to pay $1.2k LR to pay off Sandshrew's Debt to Pheno and tells JB can be co-owner/leader or w/e in The Angels, which he's said was paid off.

Sandshrew asks me for a loan of $550 after giving him $450 from his PokeBoot Profits that month that I was holding as his PP holder for it.

Sandshrew sends that $450 + $550 = $1,000 to Hex as down payment on The Angels.

Sandshrew owes me $620 due to the interest agreed on, defaults on payment, claims to have a plan to pay me back by Monday or Tuesday even though he has only $230 in his LIMITED, Fake Info PayPal.

Sandshrew still owes Hex $2,750 for The Angels by March First.

Sandshrew covered up most of this and didn't tell any of us about the other parts we didn't directly take part in.

Sandshrew is proven to have a multiple account know as xFrawshi.

Sandshrew owes $120 to contest winners he didn't pay out yet.

Sandshrew lied to his partner about sales for PokeBoot.

Says he's too busy to call me, will comment tonight or tomorrow when he feels like it.

Says he'll announce his plan tomorrow. Refuses to comment on many of the questions at the moment.

Lied to all members involved.

The multi account has the same videos, AIM's, Skype, Emails, etc as his real account.

Juicy Booty requested a full repayment from Sandshrew, totaling: $1,250

In total he owes over $5,365 USD.

Sandshrew claims the multi account is his "cousin", admits to proxy selling for a non-upgraded account, which is against the rules.

Sandshrew agrees to pay Juicy Booty $1,250 if he isn't satisfied with Sandshrew's explanation. He said he will pay me back 'possibly' by tomorrow.

He asked members of his group to code him a program to sell to make money.

He did not describe his plan to pay any of us back.

He said he will post about it tomorrow.

Sunday, Feb 3rd

He said his statement will be posted by 1pm Central Standard time on Sunday.

He posted his statement, it shows no details and adds more excuses, it's torn apart by everyone involved.

I've chargedback my payments to him due to him not being able to provide a plan in depth stating how he will actually pay off any of the debts.

Waiting his next statement and his refund of all disputes.

But you also have to think, he thought the group was being paid off fully. Not that Sandshrew still owed 2,750 to Hex, and ~600 to Tibit.

I've had funny feelings about him quite honestly, hence him not being in 143 even though he asked repeatedly.

We all have our own intuition.

Did you not get a bad feeling at all going into this JB?

I knew something like this would happen one day, but I didn't know who/when/how.

Sandshrew came up from being a nobody (sorry to say) to a somebody in just a short period of time.

When something like that happens, it is always something fishy.

What you said still makes no sense.

If he's supposedly paying his first debt back as we all sit here, and his 2nd debt is not due til the first of March, he will be keeping the group.

JB is still a Leader, so in a sense he's not lost anything, as he agreed upon & paid for that.

I am in NO WAY endorsing Sandshrew or saying hat he did was even remotely okay.

I think he's shady & underhanded & didn't like the whole deal from the start as he was acting as JB's boss rather than partner & every time we defended JB we got w/a "don't be mean to him" or "can y'all stop being negative".

I don't know how a 15 year old can come up with 5 grand. I only made 4.5 grand in an ENTIRE year of work, minimum wage of course + being busy at school.

This is actually rather sad.

I know I just recently bought Pokeboot from him and the servers were down.
We were promised extra time for each day it took - But I never gotten mine.

So after a little while I PM'd him and I got a reply around -

At this time I had 10-14 days left.

Now on the thread with Pokeboot it was promised an additional week for each day.
It took a total of 3 days for him to get it up so equaling 3 weeks of free subscription;
Yet if I try to login it says;

So I basically payed - never got to use it for a couple days - got to use it then and didn't even get the full time promised.

First off you tried getting that money through Hawkode buying The Angels, which you lied to him about half the debt you had, good thing he didn't go with buying it.

Second, I want to make sure once I get the money back, it's completely resolved. I don't want to have the chance of you trying to dispute and run off since you still have a large debt left and the possibility of getting your account closed for having another account you call your 'cousin' that has an open scam report on it.

Usually the claims teams answer pretty quick, the normal PayPal support takes a long time this week, that's why I usually like just going to merchant services and they pick up right away.

She wouldn't say what, just that he had responded and they had to review it further. However, she put me on hold for about 5 minutes, got back on and said she'd have the money back in my balance within 5-10 minutes, and now it's there. Got all my money back. However, I am still wondering what he had responded or emailed them saying. I only won without much question because I chargedback as Unauthorized.

He also has a new leader in his group which is strange as he's giving the group back to Hex soon to resolve his debts supposedly.

Did you get your $725 today?

Awesome. I am happy you got your money back. Really sketchy that they suddenly got a reply from Sandshrew though.

I haven't got anything yet. He agreed to the deal that Hex and I offered so we should be getting the group back. He says he has PMed Omni, but is unable to show us proof besides a screenshot of a PM to Omni in the tracking folder with the title "Group Leader". He says that is the PM to tell Omni it is to be transferred back, but we shall see. It is concerning that he suddenly has a new leader though. Why would you appoint a new leader after agreeing that you are going to give the group back?

I emailed them saying "Please refund the disputes from khaotic LLC." like you had told me to do.

Edit: You may now close this, it's been resolved.

Whoa now Sandy, not all the disputes have been resolved. Let's not get ahead of ourselves. ?

Is Sandshrew still keeping The Angels?

I'm looking to buy spots.

Disputes? This dispute is for Tibit, no one else.

I don't have any other disputes, other than SoulZeh, and you can't really make a valid scam report for a contest.

I thought Sandshrew paid Tibit back fully.

He only owes Phenomenal money now...

Right?

He isn't directly selling spots, but he is taking donations to "save the group" and promised a spot to anyone who donates.

False contests are scams.

I think you already know the answer to that based on this thread.

I'm guessing he saw Sandshrew & Scammed in the same sentence and thought "I bought a booter account from him, maybe he can answer this" and didn't read much if anything of this thread.

Don't worry. :)

Link some threads please? As far as I'm aware, all he's done is have Tibit chargeback on him, and then give the group back to Hex. He still owes JB $625. He's clear with Tibit though.

Tibit - February 12, 2013, 2:27 pm

I got my money through charging back on payments I sent to him. Sandshrew and I are even now.

He still owes some money to others, but that should be resolved soon.

Having staff close this as I can't due to Factor8 opening and closing it before.

Why has he not been repfucked for having multiple accounts?

I did offer to send it to you straight, but you said that wasn't safe.
Just to clear up any confusion for others.

This has nothing to do with The Angels anymore. Hex, Juicy Booty and I lead the group now. Sandshrew doesn't have anything to do with it.

It's not going to remain Angels though.

Congratulations Tibit, Glad you got your money back, sad to see that you had to go through what you did to get it back. But had you just let him send it, Paypal would have limited him and held it due to possible fraudulent activity because he is not verified. I had a verified paypal, i sent a 130$ payment to someone and paypal took it back and held it & Limited my verified account. Its best off to get it back through chargebacks, not good for the receiver but good for the one who gave the money. Atleast then, you dont have to worry about him charge backing you, I know you guys trust him, but you never know. Once again, Congratulations Tibit ?

I've sent thousands through my PayPal. I wasn't ever limited for any of those, you were just unlucky.

I've had $2,000+ at one time sitting in my PayPal. You don't actually lose money to PayPal, you eventually get it. It'd be against the law if they just kept your money for themselves.

You are currently limited though.

Also, I've PM'd two staff members, but they seem busy, so we'll just have to wait.

Please don't post any more on this thread or it will be reported as off topic which Factor8 already warned everyone on.

I have my money back so no need for this anymore. It is the largest scam report on the site though in terms of posts.

Just adding a relevant thread showing this issue and all issues relating to it have been resolved before I move it back to the deal dispute section later:

Since this was moved when my account was compromised. Will be moved back by staff.
