Thread: [Best place/easiest place to get an Xbox 360 \[PAY MONTHLY\]](#)

McCoist - February 6, 2013, 9:43 pm

So I'm looking at some catalogue websites, looking to buy a new Xbox 360. I want to either pay monthly or pay weekly.

Can anyone recommend any website that they have personally used or can vouch that it's worthy?

You usually need to qualify for they're own special system, that only certain members can use their pay monthly, buy now-pay later, pay weekly plans etc.. Anyone who doesn't qualify can only buy items for their full place, up-front.

I have a good credit rating, so I don't know what the problem is. I'm getting sick of applying on different sites, getting the same results.

Websites I've tried, so far: Littlewoods

Very

Woolworths

Brighthouse

K&Co

Freemans

Gimmetech

I live in the UK, by the way. ?

Just curious, why don't you just save and pay up front?

Just save up and buy it. Usually when you do what you want to do, you pay a lot more for the convenience of doing a payment plan.

Check your local craigslist, I see them around $50 here for a system. As long as it logs online you are fine. If the console is banned you cant play any games online.

Personally I would spend the money you are gonna spend on a 360 on a video card for the PC. :)
I stopped playing console hardcore a few years ago and switched to PC

You could SE a a brand new xBox360 for about $10 - $20. That's if you have a drop location though.

Instead of buying a new one for 300 and be on some shitty payment plan, why don't you buy a used on on Craigslist.
