Well not quite; they tried but they didn't succeed. Apparently from the gist of what I have read it seems that corrupt Russian federal agents accused the the US FBI of downloading evidence that was was supposed to be confidential.

You can read more about it here:

FBI hacking?

What has the world come to?

Lol. Doesn't the CIA already do this? xD And the Russians hack other people too. xD

BottomNotch - February 9, 2013, 10:41 pm

... Looks like the Russians are a little slowXD
