Thread: Pink username for girl hackers.

(° ? °) - February 11, 2013, 9:19 am

Wouldn't it be lovely if hackers on this forum who were girls had a pink username? That way we can easily tell the chicks apart, and to show our appreciation for women.

To prove they are girls, I think they could make a video of them writing their username on a card and send it to a staff or admin.

Anyone with me on this?

And we talk about equality

I just don't like the idea, but maybe it's just me..

Good luck

I have to agree with the above post, it just doesn't exactly sound "equal".

Yeah I don't think this is a good idea. I am a girl and I wouldn't like having the extra attention drawn towards me although I would love having my name pink lol.

iCydiiia - February 11, 2013, 9:25 am

No I do not agree with this, people will mass PM them and guys will be acting like girls just to get the pink color.

???????!??¢??? - February 11, 2013, 9:25 am

Sounds good. I'd then purchase a fiverr gig, and get a girl to write my username on a card, hence proving that I am a girl. All of a sudden, i'll then have no more PM space because of kids willing to have cyber sex.

Therefore according to me, this is a pretty bad idea.

No offence but that is a silly idea.

You couldn't of given it much thought.

adampelletgun - February 11, 2013, 9:30 am

1. This is not a useful addition.
2. There are not many girls on HF.
3. There is no way of validating a users' gender.

SIM-639097 - February 11, 2013, 9:30 am

This is a very silly idea... I doubt this will even only slightly be considered at any points in time...

? TAQ ? - February 11, 2013, 9:31 am

Fuck no, I'd feel bad for the girls rofl, they'd get mass spam.

p.s. There's no fast/efficient way to prove someone's gender.

'An0ny - February 11, 2013, 9:32 am

NO FUCK NO LOL, omg this is the worst suggestion ever! inb4 ppl start making fake accounts

Syndicate - February 11, 2013, 9:32 am

No, this would be a stupid idea in my opinion. Aren't we trying to solve the equality problem?

Senior Sherlock - February 11, 2013, 9:32 am

The only possible way this would work is if they got someone to go to their house or cyber stalk the user for months on hackforums and other social things such as skype waiting for the tiniest slip up... How about we stop trying to get cyber sex and just to xnxx ok - Rat ? The Sadist

Why do you want this forum to be a sexiest forum?

- 1.) Guys/woman should not be different on a public board.
- 2.) Females will receive a lot of hate due to being female.
- 3.) Some females may not like pink?
- 4.) Saying females deserve pink, means I want a pink name too. I'm not a girl?

Or we could all stop clit-riding girls on the internet. They shouldn't get special privileges just for having boobs and a vagina.
