I will be upgrading 1-10 member per month.

So Far:

February: Ammar23

--

I will be updating this thread every month with the latest member I have upgraded.

I will upgrade members that are HQ. I'm not talking about the people that have a butt load of posts and are popular, I'm talking about those people with few posts, but contribute to the community and deserve an upgrade.[/color]

I don't like the saying "Rich people get richer and poor people get poorer", it's time to make a difference :).

Warnings:

I will not be upgrading anyone that registered in the last 90 days.

I will not upgrade anyone in negative rep.

I will not upgrade anyone with scam reports/deal disputes.

Do not PM me or post any application or even hint it at or you will be black listed for life.

Thanks for this Cryptic, good to see at least some generous members here.

I'm working on getting my shit together in order to do something like this. I have the funds right now, just not the time and mindset.

Good luck with everything.

This is sweet man, so thanks for doing this. By the time my account is 90+ days old, i'll be approved for uber, so i'll apply next month or something!

And i would love to be upgraded, i would have been if i would have had the cash, but i never find any good method to earn some at, i once made 5$ ewhoring but did a giveaway on this forum cause i knew it was better than to have it myself :p And yeah, so many more things why i would like to be upgraded :)

Why you want it/deserve it: I believe I deserve 1337 for my assistance to the community. Every since I have been a member on HackForums, I have loved to help everyone. Rather it is with Facebook account hacking, or setting up a RAT, I have always been there for users in need with a smile and a helping hand. In the last month I have been doing free graphics for members. I have devoted three hours of my day each day just for helping people with free graphics. As you can see by my posts and rep, I am not very popular but most of my posts are pretty HQ and are usually for helping people. My daily post count is so low because I was off of Hackforums for a while trying to get my grades back up, but now I am back and trying to help members. I have released two tutorials on HackForums, which both have been noticed by lots of people, and I have even recieved PM's of people who could not rep me thanking me for this. I devote hours daily to Hackforums, and would love to be upgraded to the next level. Thank you a bunch for doing this!

Rob. - February 12, 2013, 5:51 pm

Nice idea for an upgrade giveaway thing, and this is better than people making their own applications, so you can actually find the HQ posts by yourself ;)

Mr. RawrGasm - February 12, 2013, 5:51 pm

This is a great way to give back to the community, you will not regret it. I haven't been on the site for months and today I've seen many members that I've upgraded still doing a great job at giving back to the community.

I do not meet all your rules, but I think I worth the time to be read.. Please note that english is not my main language, thanks.

Since I joined HackForums, I've already made 3 contributions to HF members :

Please review my posts/threads, I think you will easily see that I hope the best for this forum. I posted on many threads trying to help the member in question and I love to do this. I'm on many forums, but this one is pretty much more active than I ever saw. Members are more cool and it's not a problem browsing for hours through new threads.

I'm not asking you to break the rule for me, but just think about the fact I try to be High Quality..

Thanks for the contribution, I hope the best of lucks to everybody who post here wanting an upgrade :)

Members like you make a forum better and I'm sure everybody do appreciated it :)

Best regards,

I think this is a great thing you're doing OP, and hopefully you select those who you and others feel deserve leet. I'm not going to put myself forward or ask for leet as I don't feel I personally can give an unbiased reflection of myself. Also, there are probably members who deserve it way more than me :)

Irritable - February 12, 2013, 7:42 pm

My only major concern regarding this post:

If the OP is so genuinely generous (as I honestly consider myself, in consideration of OVER 20 year of experience of my own life):

Why does he or she REQUIRE persons to subject OTHER individuals as being "Worthy?" Why is the OP incapable of deciding who is, and who is not to be upgraded?

Based on their OWN interactions (anonymously) on these forums? Why do they 'require' proof of the activity, and "high quality" (whatever the fuck that means) post count of other users?

Why does the OP demand that the post count be low, but all posts be "Of "HIGH" quality?"

Seriously...? I have over 3k posts. Of all the posts I've made, MAYBE 100 at the fucking MOST were made in vain.

The rest? Entirely helpful. I prefer CONCISE, HORT, replies. Over long, drawn out ones. Why waste time? It is inefficient. The idea behind language is to communicate an idea.

The shorter, the faster, the clearer: THE BETTER.

That is my two cents on the sentence. Good day.

[jrl]I apologize if my post did not make much sense. I have consumed nearly 32 fluid ounces (9 ounces is the same measurement in the English system) of pure ethanol alcohol. I will post a picture due to the common inability of belief of honesty and truth in the reality of persons lives. People lie so often, they assume most persons words are lies. To the first part of your post, the OP is requesting that people nominate others (or themselves) because he is afraid of being biased in selection. Of course, one can argue that the final decision is at the discretion of the OP anyway but the point here is that he also seems to be interested in finding out really outstanding people. If you're so good that someone noticed you and nominated you, that goes a long way in showing how worthy you are.

To the second part - you drank pure ethanol? Or are you referring to consumable alcohol?

100% ethanol will kill you very, very fast.

FairTrader - February 13, 2013, 12:17 pm

Why do you deserve this?:

I have made alot of giveaways, and giving away a steam cracker including a steam cfg. And I have also done alot of other giveaways like, Netflix, Steam accounts with good games, and some other giveaway. I have tried to make some signatures and userbars for groups but i'm not that good, but I still gave it a try. I also crypt files for very cheap price/or for free and, try to help other members as much as I can.

If i'll get l33t I will probably keep what i'm doing and make some good giveaways for other HackForum members.

I will not abuse those extra functions that you get as l33t, and only use it to give green apples to those HackForum members that I think deserve it.

I'm also a very active member on HF and try to be online as much as I can.

It would also be good with some more PM space because I have to delete everything every 10 minute because it get spammed.

Contributions to HF:

Most of them are giveaways, but I also have some tutorials and a free steam account cracker.

I just wanted to write a little about myself in this.

My name is Nicolaj I live in Denmark and, i'm 15 years old.

I love to play soccer/football and i'm a big Arsenal fan.

I got the name Theo Walcott on HF because I love the Arsenal football club and Walcott is one of my favorite players.

Everyday when I get home from school the first thing I start to do is visit HackForums to see if something new happens, if there is nothing happening then i'm going outside with some friends and play soccer.

I got 20% warning level because I wanted to give away a minecraft account because I had 2, but it was not allowed so that's the reason I have warning level.

Why do you want L33t? :

I would love to have L33T, because I greatly enjoy spending time on HF because there is so much to learn and so many nice people. Being upgraded to L33T, grants more freedom (such as a bigger PM box, which I would love to have) and yet also more responsibilities. I am quite certain that I have matured enough to gain L33T.

I plan to continue posting more and more threads such as the ones above. Also, I would also like to point out, that all of my contributions cannot be resumed in a couple of threads. I have also helped numerous members by guiding/help them and answering their questions.

Thank you very much Cryptic for being so generous and holding this contest/giveaway! I hope you reach a good conclusion with the mentor who scammed you, and as always, good luck to all the other participants!

Why do you want L33t? : I believe that I deserve an L33T upgrade as I have demonstrated through my posts that I am a mature, helpful and active user of our forums. I have been contributing to this community through my free services and a little bit of graphics as well. I have never scammed anyone on HF(or in real life either). I enjoy a good rapport with many of the members here and I am always willing to help them in whatever way possible. I feel that if I would a l33t tag I would feel more dedicated to this community and contribute alot more here.

Congratulations, you have been black listed. You obviously do not read things in red.

I will upgrade members that are HQ. I'm not talking about the people that have a butt load of posts and are popular, I'm talking about those people with few posts, but contribute to the community and deserve an upgrade.[/color]First I have to say that this is a nice giveaway. But, how do you find/select worthy members? Are you looking into every section to find them?

Very nice contribution Cryptic ^^ you have indeed done a good job. ?

Name: Thangorn

Upgrade to: L33T

Reason:

I'll be honest, I can't afford to spend money on upgrading right now, I do a lot by means of assisting members, I am not a money maker on the internet and am studying medicine so I'm broke (5th year into my degree). I have contributed a great deal to this forum, especially assisting in the Remote administration tool section and the cryptography forum. As well as submitting a little bit of code to help towards the development of the well known RAT, JRAT. I have helped the cryptographers by making a good guide, on scanning your FUD crypts. This was at the top of the cryptography section for a while and from the feedback really did help some new members who would ordinarily have jumped straight onto Virus total which is a distributing scanner. (Makes your crypts unfud).

There are a few links below to some HQ posts I have made:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3170703> (Whatsapp hacking) Was very helpful to many users!

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3316661> (Where to scan your FUD crypts) Invaluable to new members, saved a lot of the crypter creators some misery.

Helping members FUD their crypter:

Every service I have offered on HF has been free of charge and with interests of helping this great community grow!

Thanks for holding this giveaway/competition. It's really great :D

Long live the great Empire posts!

Blessed with Hacking - April 23, 2013, 1:07 pm

I deserve the upgrade because...

I would like to be upgraded to L33T, as much I would have me to be.

I would like to reward the reputation of those who need it, and for good tutorials.

I also have more access to the forum. If you could wish to find me, I would be very grateful.
Sorry for any mistakes, but I can not perfect English.
Regards, BlessPL.
