Thread: Thiudorcus - LoL Elo Boosting Service

BidetsAreLife - February 13, 2013, 4:48 pm

Why Should You Pick Me?

I have been playing this game sense season one, i have proof of me on smurf account playing less then 25 games and reaching Platinum I, i will provide further info via skype.

Payment will be half when i start the job and half when finished, i get paid by tier, now by division. Accepting paypal gifts, may open a LR if its requested.

Gonna this I am in need of money, All jobs will be done ASAP on a first come first served basis.

Garbus - June 4, 2014, 3:12 pm

Did you get any vouches last time? :)

BidetsAreLife - June 4, 2014, 3:16 pm

Only from Eminem, I believe I did a job from him a good while back, however I am proven to not be a scammer on other threads like my skin code thread, i attempted to give free boosting to l33t, I mean I can do you an account right away, I am currently Diamond 1 17 points on EUW.

The Judge's Bitch - June 6, 2014, 3:20 am

Do you do coaching instead/as well as ELO boosting? I'd be happy to take a vouch copy of that ;)

EDIT1: Going to put my vouch in this post if I decide to do so. So far I've chatted with the guy on Skype and played a match with him, he's a great laugh and does his job well. Ignore the scammer at the top of the thread. Will edit this again with more details after the vouch service is complete!

EDIT2 (Review):

Ok, so the service has now been completed (took a while because I only wanted him to do it whilst I was online too). This is what I gathered from actually watching him boost my account (Twitch and Skype screen share).

Speed: 9/10 - This guy gets through matches damn quick, I've seen people do it a bit faster so it's not a 10 but his average match length is probably somewhere around 30-34 minutes.

Trustworthiness: 10/10 - Although I was watching him the whole time this guy is definitely trustworthy, don't ask me how because I won't tell anyone but he has his own account which is LOADED and I mean LOADED. There is absolutely no reason why this guy would want your account. Trust me, no reason at all.

Personality: 9/10 - Really friendly guy and will even drop some hints and tips at you if you end up talking to him via Skype or whatever, which you may not but regardless. He's a good guy and has some solid morals from what I've gathered. The reason this isn't a 10 is because he came off a little "brash" in one of the matches he played but it was mostly justified as he had some serious feeders and trolls. (He still won!) He even kept going for me when he was ill, and kept winning too!

Notes: He plays pretty much any role, only saw one match with him in support which he unfortunately lost (wasn't entirely his fault, he did well, just not well enough to carry) so you won't get any issues there. He's very reasonable in the lobby so you won't be getting reported for insta locking or anything like that.

Overall, this guy is pretty damn good, I have very few complaints at all and I would definitely use him again in the future if I needed him.

For me couching tends to be hard, because the way solo queue works is strange, I do things in lower elo that i can't do in high elo, once i reach D2 I have to play support only because its my main role, I am willing to give advice or anything about botlane match ups free of charge or give you videos that have thought me over time and generally give me better understanding of the game, I have played sense Beta, Storm, I'd like to take you up on that vouch copy if possible, Is the account EUW or EUNE?

The account is on EUW, verified so I'm happy to do you a vouch. I also main support so I'd definitely love to pick up some videos etc you've found useful before.

BidetsAreLife - June 6, 2014, 3:34 am

Sent you a PM :) I'll make a template with a link of videos abit later :D I got sometime to play right now.
