Why should you be accepted into the group?:

I've played RuneScape alot in the past years. I think I started at the year of 2004 till 2010. I know a lot about the game, I was pretty no-life in those years. I hope I can be accepted in this group, because I start playing RuneScape again because of the new 2007 server.

How active are you on RuneScape and Ingame?:

Last few years I was not active, because of the new in-game updates. I didn't like the graphics/wilderness/new items etcetera. Now because the old school 2007 server is back I will play again for sure.

How will you contribute too 'The RuneScapers'?

Because I know a lot about the game, I will help other RuneScapers with quests and other in-game questions they have to be answered. I can help them to make them rich and help them with PK'ing. I've pked a lot in the past years and it made me rich. I think there are a really few things where I can't help with. I can't really say what things.

2. It's the other way around, I removed you because you broke a rule. I kicked you then you cried IRL and raged.

Why should you be accepted into the group?:

I believe I should be accepted because I am a long-time RuneScape player, and I have played from the early days of 06 to the EoC, and I quit when the EoC came about because I -HATED- it.

How active are you on RuneScape and Ingame?:

I play a few hours a day to boost my stats for future PvP.

How will you contribute too 'The RuneScapers'?

I am a GFX and a fairly good hybrid.

Please link at least two HQ RuneScape threads (Giveaways, TuT, HQ Help etc...):

I don't have any RS related threads on the forum yet.

Will you where our signature?:

I am not upgraded. So no, I can't.
