Hi, I purchased L33T on here recently, however, I still don't have access to the VIP section. I was wondering, if this issue can be fixed? Hopefully the matter can be resolve. Thank you.

I memorized all the links and was one off. My bad.

Clicked '9' instead of '7.'

Yes, I have. However, it keeps taking to me the page to upgrade my account when I already purchased L33T.

Just wait like 24 hours and maybe you can access it then. If not, I'd PM Omni.

When I click that link, it too takes me to the purchase page.

Try clicking on the tab from hackforums.net

Just PM Omniscient -- this shouldn't be happening.

Try clearing your cache and flushing your DNS; if nothing happens, PM him.
