Thread: Runescape in game items traded in the Runescape section.

Vinnie - February 22, 2013, 10:47 pm

I've seen this happen several times and I'm not sure if staff have misunderstood the thread or if it's actually against the rules. This has nothing to do with selling in game items for in real life money or currency such as PayPal, LR or any other online currency holder.

I'd like to double check and make sure that staff understand what I mean by this so I'll give an example, the picture below shows a Runescape page and on the right hand side we have the inventory. In the inventory I've split two parts, the left and the right. The left hand side contains the in game money and the right hand side contains in game items such as, pixaxes, iron, tin and copper ores.

[img]http://icap.me/i/d4yLtlO6Y3.png[/img]

What I'm wondering is are we allowed to sell Runescape in game items for Runescape in game money, all in game trading and once again, this has nothing to do with online currencies, I've seen several people get banned for this and adding to that if we do post these "trades" in the virtual section we won't get it noticed, also the virtual section has several virtual in game gold being sold but we're not looking to sell in game gold, we're looking to trade in game items for other in game items, like make a thread of some sort that members can trade in.

UPDATED PROOF ;_;

Vouch, I have seen this issue multiple times with staff.

You should be allowed to sell in game-to-game items for game currency.

#Skyline - February 22, 2013, 11:34 pm

I know right.

They shouldn't be trading there.

?ades - February 23, 2013, 5:39 am

Theres alot of confusion around this, as it is virtual I think it goes under that tab.

but not sure.

Vinnie - February 23, 2013, 5:41 am

Yes, I know but we're not selling the virtual items and the virtual items contain several other games gold or items being sold such as fifa coins or private server gold or items.

Miki - February 23, 2013, 5:46 am

I think it still should go under virtual good section, as this Section would get spammed with mass trading threads.

Revenge - February 23, 2013, 5:49 am

There's no set rule against it (At least I can't see one) but if members are getting banned for it, it would be best to clear it with a staff member. But obviously under the virtual section.

+Pirate - February 23, 2013, 6:03 am

If they're doing game to game items i think it stays in the RS section, but if IRL money is involved, virtual items section.

Someone in the Teamspeak channel got banned for 3 days, for trying to sell in game items for in game gold.

Vexna - February 23, 2013, 6:24 am

There is also the Traders Topics section. Would it be a bad idea?

Who's teamspeak.

Because it would be up to the Admin/staff to decide the rules.

Vinnie - February 23, 2013, 6:28 am

That section doesn't attract a lot of Runescape attention, noway near enough sadly.

Let me put it this way, people in the Minecraft section seem to be allowed to trade enchanted pickaxes for Minecraft in game gold or other items but in the Runescape section you get banned for it.

That's the Teamspeak. I think staff are getting confused and think we're selling the in game items.

That's the Teamspeak. I think staff are getting confused and think we're selling the in game items. You should confirm with them that you're allowed to sell RS items, or at least let people know you are selling RS items, but only for In-game money/trades.

Look, at the OP, I've just updated it. It's kind of sad and confusing.

+Pirate - February 23, 2013, 7:43 am

I'm not too sure then.

If you're doing exclusively in-game items for in-game cash/items, there should be nothing wrong.

Wolves - February 23, 2013, 7:46 am

HackerCraft section allows you buy game related items for game related currency so I don't see why you really shouldn't be able to.

It's been a grey area for some time and should be addressed with all gaming sections.

Thank you Wolves, I kind of thought that too but it's a shame really because every day or so we have these accidental bans.

Phobix - February 23, 2013, 8:34 am

I would personally like to see a subsection in the runescape subforum for item trades. You're right, virtual goods section never gets any views.

I was waiting to see how well this thread does before opening a suggestion for a sub section in the Runescape section for trades without being banned.

The Fro - February 23, 2013, 9:40 am

I agree 110% With Vinnie. I'm becoming active in the RS section and I need a place to figure out prices / trade items with others.

Vinnie - February 23, 2013, 9:52 am

Let's get some staff attention and see what they have to say. If nothing I guess I'll suggest this in a few hours ^_^.

We need a place to trade, especially since RS2007 is major.

Tutelary - February 23, 2013, 10:02 am

Wouldn't this subforum of the HF Marketplace be the right place?: Virtual Game Items <- Though it's not about trading, it's about Virtual Items.

Farcast - February 23, 2013, 10:17 am

Hmm, I wonder how this will affect HF.

I guess we will see what Omni / other staff have to say.

Vinnie - February 23, 2013, 10:17 am

No because that section only has buyers and we're interested in members trading in game items not selling it.

Cryptic™ - February 23, 2013, 10:27 am

It should be under Virtual Game Items. There is nothing wrong with it + it's not possible to get scammed if you trade in game...

Nathann22 - February 23, 2013, 10:29 am

That would be pretty nice.

I'm too scared to say that I'm looking for a santa hat. 0.o

spittta - February 23, 2013, 10:34 am

Yes, under Runescape section there should be subboard named Grand Exchange or some shit

Not really because the trading is 1:1? What are you talking about? There is a trade screen... How do you get scammed 1:1?

Unacknowledged - February 23, 2013, 10:37 am

There's a lot of confusion apparently. This thread may help the Staff understand a bit more.

Umm you offer your items, other guy gives you the RSGP as promised. You both hit accept.

It's not like you give him the items first then he will give you your money later, like how we do when we pay PP/LR.

1) the trade doesn't have to be items for RSGP, it can be items for items.
2) How do you get scammed in a 1:1 trade screen? That's what you originally said. The virtual item section doesn't have a Runescape ONLY trading section, that is what I'm looking to get the answer off by staff.

Jemjem787 - February 23, 2013, 2:13 pm

This really isn't related to the topic, but in the virtual items market there should be a sub forum for Runescape related deals, because that section is pretty much filled with only RS stuff. So the items that arent related to RS can be found more easily and not drowned out.

Vinnie - February 23, 2013, 2:21 pm

Or we can put a sub forum in the Runescape section and have Runescape related trades there. (In game trades.)

Monte Cristo - February 23, 2013, 3:32 pm

I agree this is a very important matter, I would love to see this implemented. Thanks for addressing the matter Op.

+Pirate - February 23, 2013, 4:52 pm

With the Hackercract section, people could sell In Game Items for In Game Money (or vice versa) in the section, but if it involved real money, it's straight into virtual items.

Vinnie - February 23, 2013, 4:58 pm

We're not looking to sell the in game items for IRL cash. Read the OP I've stated it more than I can breathe. And on top of that people still get banned...

1) Yea thats fine.

2) I said that it is NOT POSSIBLE TO GET SCAMMED if you trade in game. Read my original post lool. I think you mis read it.

look

I know, it's one of technicalities of having a Marketplace. If we can't do it in the Virtual Items, it needs to have a subforum.

Bonfire - February 23, 2013, 6:53 pm

I'm all for this Vinnie. I'd love to see this happen. ?

En1gma - February 24, 2013, 8:23 am

I would love to see this happen as people are getting banned for no reason.

Elegant - February 24, 2013, 8:24 am

Vouch for this. This would be helpful in the RuneScape section to sell stuff.

Wopy - February 24, 2013, 8:25 am

So many people are getting banned in the Runescape section cause you cant do that.

Positive - February 24, 2013, 11:20 am

If it has to do with buying, selling or trading, it belongs in the Marketplace (no matter the cause).

Use your suggestion thread -- no need for two.

Omniscient - March 8, 2013, 12:28 am

I'm discussing with staff to clarify our policy on this matter. I'll likely make a post about it once things are worked out.
